New Brunswick.

A writer in the London Advertiser gives the following historical sketch of New Brunswick, now one of the Confederated Provinces:—

New Brunswick was so named from Brunswick in Germany, the former residences of Queen Victoria's forefathers up to 1714, when George I., Duke of Brunswick, ascended the throne of England. It is a compact tract of country lying between the Bay of Chaleur and the Bay of Fundy, and bounded east by Gulf of St. Lawrence, and west by the State of Maine. The 45th and 48th parallels of latitude are nearly its south and north limits, and it lies within the 64th and 68th meridians west longitude. Area, 27,037 square miles, or equal to a square each side of which is 165 miles. Disputes, for many years, were carried on with the United States regarding its boundaries. It is diversified with hills and dales, beautiful lakes and noble rivers. The bays afford good facilities for commerce. Fully two-thirds of the boundary is formed by sea coast, and the remainder affords all the advantages of a seaboard, being close to the navigable rivers St. Croix, St. John, and Restigouche. Along the Bay of Fundy the shores are high and precipitous, yet there are many good harbours for vessels not of the largest size. The eastern coast is well provided with ports. The largest vessels can find entrance at the mouths of the rivers, and especially at Miramichi Bay and the Richibucto. New Brunswick is thus, in her extensive seaboard and numerous harbours, supplied with the means of extending her commerce and fisheries almost without limit. At the head of the St. Croix river, on the south-west boundary, are a number of lakes forming a series of deep-water expansions and irregular openings in the midst of a granitic country. Dome shaped hills rise to the height of two thousand feet above the sea, and fine cliffs tower above the water, their perpendicular faces scamed and withered into the semblance of gigantic masonry. Over all the unclerped part of the colony, a dense forest covers every available spot. From this granite region two mountain branches stretch across the country; one running towards the north-east forms a fine range named the Tobique Mountains. Here Mount Bald, the highest point is 2,240 feet. Every traveller wishing to obtain a magnificent view over a country richly varied by mountain and forest, lake and river, should ascend Mars Hill, 1,700 feet. Besides, it is historically interesting. Its summit was cleared in 1794 for the purpose of erecting an observatory; but it has returned to wildness. The scenery among these giant mountains is of the grandest character. Some of the clefts on their northern flanks are so deep and narrow that the sun never melts the snow in them; and glaciers descending these ravines in spring, add the evidences of their destroying force to the wildness of that region. Again, tortuous fissures, shut in by rugged cliffs, are occupied by narrow lakes at great depth; or torrents descend through them, leaping from fall to fall along their uneven beds, and in flood time strongly exhibit the degrading power of water, in the rocks and timber born down by their stained and foaming streams. In the foreground the confused and naked masses of stone and slate are mingled with trees and vegetation, struggling to gain a footing among them; but below and in the distance an interminable forest loads the surface and hides all distinction of hill and valley.

The Kingston News, a Conservative journal, devoted to Sir John A. Macdonald's cause has the following:—

"The numerical preponderance of Reformers in Upper Canada makes the Liberal party the arbiter of the affairs of this Province; and the representative members of that party can in their places in the Assembly control the administration in every particular."

If such be the case then why force on Reformers a "combination" that they do not want. It is evidently useless to attempt to split the Reform ranks; tho' some of the leaders may have turned recreant for the sake of obtaining office. A few shaky half-and-halves may say that the action was just and proper, but the main body of Reformers is as much intact as it ever was, nor will all the specious speeches of John S. bring them to look upon him with suspicion, nor will all the false logic of the renegades win to their sides again the friends whom they have deserted. Yes, the Liberal party will be arbiters, and truth and consistency will soon be unequivocally triumphant.

THE CANDIDATE FOR EAST TORONTO.—The following is from the Brampton Times one of the papers from which the Leader has been recently quoting, as the true exponent of the public opinion in the West:—

"TORONTO EAST.—James Beaty, of the Leader, a rebel in 1837—a denouncer of Tories as plunderers and robbers, until within a few years past—an annexationist in 1841, and which in heart yet—announces himself as a candidate for the House of Commons for Toronto East. Of all the men that sat in Parliament, we hope his walls will never be disgraced with such a man as James Beaty. He has several times tried to represent Toronto as a denouncer of Toryism and everything British, and has always been ignominiously defeated by loyal Reformers, he has for some years past appeared as a Tory in disguise. Under that cloak he is now trying to obtain a seat in the Canadian House of Commons. We warn the electors of Toronto that he is a Jesuit, prepared to sell them at any moment he can better himself. His speeches reported in the Toronto Examiner, or some old files of the Toronto Patriot, will show him up in true colours. We deeply regret that the present Government has not a more loyal defend-

MINISTERIAL "TRIPPING."—The two

Premiers have not yet ceased their hunting. If perseverance could always be rewarded by success no more successful men could be than Sir John A. Macdonald and Hon. John Sandfield. We hear of them in Brantford, we hear of them in Simcoe, and in short we hear of them in so many places that it might be difficult for either of the gentlemen to convince a judiciary, formed of newspaper readers, of the infallibility of the proverb, that no person can be in two places at the same time. The last we hear of them is, that the Premier of Ontario arrived at Hamilton on Saturday last: he had come from Simcoe, by the way of Paris and was going to the Falls, to admire the beauties of nature no doubt. The Tories gave him a kind reception, which is saying considerable for the forgiving disposition of all parties. Sir John A. it was said was to follow him by the next train. It is believed that both the gentlemen will visit Hamilton next week to carry everything before them.

SOUTH PERTH.—Mr. McFarlane, late Reform member for Perth, has for some time been in the field alone for the representation of the South Riding, the County having been divided into two Constituencies. The candidate for the Local House was Mr. Trow, a man very rich in this world's goods. Until lately we heard of no opposition to either of the aspirants, but we now learn that Mr. T. B. Guest, of St. Mary's, is out as an opponent of Mr. McFarlane, and Mr. J. Donovan, of Toronto, is pitted against Mr. Trow. Mr. Donovan's claims to consideration rest on the ground that he "took such a manly stand against the proceedings of the Catholic Convention." Mr. Guest is known as the invariable proposer of T. M. Daly. No matter how Tom had voted during one term, Mr. Guest always proposed him as "a fit and proper person to represent the County" when he came back looking for election. One would imagine that he would have known the South Riding of Perth better than to suppose that with even all his fine personal qualifications he would have any chance against Mr. McFarlane, who defeated Daly, the best canvasser perhaps who was ever in the old House of Assembly. The Conservatives live at the other end of the County, which is unfortunate for Mr. Guest.

THE HIGHLANDERS.—The Montreal Witness of Friday says: A large number of the men of the 78th Regiment (which arrived in this city a few days before) visited town, from their encampment at Logan's Farm, yesterday afternoon. In the principal streets they might be seen in squads, evidently regarding the stores and public buildings with a curiosity equal to that with which they were themselves beheld by the citizens. Independently of the fact that they are unusually a fine body of men, their picturesque dress—the only remains of the old Gaelic costume now found in Europe—is a never-failing cause of attention. Their gallant share in the suppression of the Indian mutiny also unconsciously increases the admiration and good will towards them.

SOME of the Coalition newspapers still parade the names of the Ministerial candidates for the Local Legislature as "Unionists," and their meetings as "Union meetings." This is surely a very blundering nomenclature, to distinguish the supporters of a Ministry, three of whose members out of five have opposed Union from first to last, the Premier himself, no longer since than Wednesday at the London meeting, declaring Confederation to be a "humbug." The term "Disunionists" is the only appropriate one for these gentlemen.—Globe.

NORTH SIMCOE.—Mr. Morrison's chances of election in Niagara being of the poorest possible kind, he is now in North Simcoe, to ascertain his prospects for a seat in the Legislative Assembly. He is opposed by Mr. Lount, who is a Reformer, strongly opposed to Mr. Sandfield McDonald's Coalition; and Mr. Morrison, it is said will be entirely unable to oppose him with success.

OIL EXPLOSION AT PETROLIA.—On Saturday morning about 5 o'clock a fire occurred in an oil well, owned by Messrs. Dorr & Middaugh, and originated by the gas being drawn into the furnace of the boiler and igniting in the well. It blew up with a loud report, injuring three men seriously and two severely. The well is still burning.

COUNTY OF KENT.—Mr. Sandfield McDonald is expected with his employer, Sir John A. Macdonald, in Chatham, in order to persuade either Northwood or Stephenson to retire from the field.

BARBER VS. CAMERON.—Mr. Robert Barber, of Streetsville, has been selected by the Reform Convention of the County of Peel, to contest the constituency with J. H. Cameron, Mr. Currie, of St. Catharines, having declined the previous nomination given to him. The Leader comes out strongly against Mr. Barber, calling him the extreme Disunionist and Protectionist candidate, and calls on the electors to vote for John Hillyard on opposite principles. The fact of it is, that it is Cameron who is a Disunionist, opposed to Confederation, and still prefers a change for Legislative Union, and as we understand it, the term Protectionist can be applied better to Cameron, who has voted for the high tariffs of Mr. Galt, than to Mr. Barber, who goes for such incidental protection as is necessary to raise a revenue, and at the same time protect the new and weak manufactures without driving out foreign productions.—Milton Champion.

They have plenty of money in London, the Herold, of July 13, says:—

"Such is the abundance of money that £1,500,000 was offered on the security of Consols yesterday at 11 per cent, but the parties to whom the proposals were made were so full that they refused to take it."

WEST YORK.—Mr. Thomas Grahame, Deputy Reeve of Vaughan, (Mr. Howland, Warden, being Reeve) has consented to become a candidate on the Union ticket for the representation of West York in the legislature of Ontario.

The Belgian volunteers to the number of about 2,400 arrived in London on the 14th, and were received on landing

The Evening Mercury.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

DAILY MERCURY.—The Guelph Mercury has commenced a daily edition. It is a neatly printed and cleverly conducted paper.—(Belleville Intelligence.)

NEW DAILY.—The Mercury, of Guelph, has made its appearance as an evening paper. It is well printed, lively-looking paper, and starts out on its new career with every prospect of success.—(Toronto Evening Telegram.)

THE GUELPH MERCURY has made its appearance as a daily evening paper, the first number having been issued on Saturday. It presents a neat and creditable appearance, and, in the hands of its enterprising conductors, will we hope prove a success.—(Ottawa Daily Times.)

NEW DAILY.—Guelph can now boast of a second daily newspaper. The Mercury, of Guelph, has now issued every evening. It is a neatly got up sheet, and well furnished with reading matter.—(The only thing wanting about it is, that it is too Griffith, of the worst description, the Brown stamp, and opposes the union government.—(London Daily Post.)

WE have received the first and second Nos. of the Guelph Evening Mercury. Our friends of the Mercury have been so successful in their business during the last few years that they are now enabled to publish a daily journal. It is beautifully printed from new type, and seems to be well furnished with that staff of newspaper life—news, news, news. We wish the new daily journal all success.—(Daily Globe.)

JOURNALISTIC.—We welcome the first copy of the Guelph Evening Mercury, published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones. It is a new, clean, clear type, and in appearance will challenge comparison with any of its contemporaries. The paper exhibits a high level of intelligence, and is the best newspaper in Guelph, and we believe that the daily edition, which opens fresh and lively, will still further increase the prestige of the establishment. We wish our country every success.—(London Daily Advertiser.)

JOURNAL ENTERPRISE.—We are happy to notice that the enterprising publishers of the Guelph Mercury have been successful in their business that they have now commenced a daily edition, to be published every weekday afternoon.—The new paper makes an excellent appearance, and bids fair to be a success. As the Mercury is the only Reform paper in Guelph, we hope the liberals of South Wellington will give it the support it deserves. We heartily wish Messrs. McLagan & Jones the fullest realization of their highest expectations.—(Waterloo Chronicle.)

GUELPH EVENING MERCURY.—The enterprising proprietors of the Guelph Mercury, Messrs. McLagan & Jones, have commenced the publication of a daily evening edition, under the above title, the first number of which is now in circulation. The Mercury has long and worthily enjoyed the reputation of being one of the best conducted and most valuable journals of Western Canada, and the new publication promises to sustain the character of the letter. It is of a fair size, and its typographical appearance is bright and sharp, corresponding with its editorial capacities. The EVENING MERCURY is a great improvement on anything in the newspaper line with which the people of Guelph have before been favoured, and we hope that its days may be long and prosperous.—(Hamilton Times.)

THE SOUTH-Ontario having copied from the Advertiser the notice of the Guelph Evening Mercury, adds the following: The above we find in the Hamilton Times, and readily endorse all that is therein said in respect to the Guelph Evening Mercury, and hope that the enterprise of its proprietors will be properly appreciated by the people of Guelph, as the Mercury is really a credit to their town.

NEW DAILY.—The proprietors of the Guelph Mercury, who have always shown themselves to be energetic, business-like, go-ahead men, have issued an evening sheet of high appearance and general set-up, styled the Guelph Evening Mercury. Without the slightest hesitations, we give the laudable stock of all the little toys, it gives the late news of the day, full and copious, and gives just the thing wanted in the town. It is a fine, wide-awake, reliable daily newspaper. Rip Van Winkle of the "Herald" must not look himself, or the world will leave him a century behind. We wish the Mercury success and a long life.—(Elora Observer.)

The first number of the Guelph Evening Mercury has been received. It is published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones. It is very neatly printed, and like the weekly, ably conducted. We hope the people of Guelph, who are noted for their enterprise and ability, will give this new candidate for public favor a liberal support.—(Ingersoll Chronicle.)

THE GUELPH MERCURY is now published a daily paper. Our contemporary has our best wishes for the success of the enterprise.—(Durham Chronicle.)

NEW DAILY PAPER.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. McLagan & Jones, the first number of the Guelph Evening Mercury. It is a handsome got up little sheet, and deserves the support of the community among whom it will circulate.—(Georgetown Herald.)

The proprietors of the Guelph Mercury have commenced the publication of a daily evening edition. We have received the first number, and must say that typographically the paper is a model of neatness. We differ from the "Mercury" politically, but notwithstanding this we are ready to give Messrs. McLagan & Jones every credit for their enterprise and energy. We wish them immediate success in their new venture, but doubt whether the county town can support two dailies.—(Fergus News Record.)

EVENING MERCURY.—We are in receipt of a new daily paper published in Guelph under the title of Mercury, by Messrs. McLagan & Jones, the enterprising proprietors of the Guelph Mercury. The new paper is a beautiful specimen of typography, and we think that the proprietors are a sufficient guarantee that it will be ably and energetically conducted.—(Mount Forest Examiner.)

THE GUELPH EVENING MERCURY.—The Guelph Mercury, hitherto a first-class weekly, commenced on Saturday last for the first time as a daily. It is a paper of 24 columns, and displays an amount of enterprise and ability, we should say, altogether in advance of the means of the place to sustain.—(Stratford Beacon.)

GUELPH EVENING MERCURY.—We have much pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of several numbers of the daily "Mercury", published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones. It is printed from new South type, and presents an exceedingly clean and neat appearance, while the literary department is characterized by marked ability. The "Evening Mercury" contains the latest telegraphic news, as well as all local matters of an interesting nature. Guelph now boasts of two daily papers, which says much for the intelligence of the inhabitants of that flourishing town. If the same ability and energy is exhibited in the management of the "Evening Mercury", that has for several years past marked that of the weekly, and which has placed it in the front rank as a newspaper, their efforts to publish a first-class daily will be crowned with success. The publishers of the "Mercury" have our warmest wishes for the success of their new enterprise.—(Berlin Telegraph.)

WE have on our table the first number of the Guelph Evening Mercury, published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones. It is a two-column paper, and is without doubt far in advance of any paper of its size in Canada. We wish the proprietors every possible success, which the new sheet undoubtedly deserve.—(Down Sound Advertiser.)

EVENING MERCURY.—This is the title of a new evening paper, published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones, in the thriving town of Guelph. It is a 24 column sheet, neatly printed, and conducted with ability. Politically speaking its tone is opposition to Coalition. We trust the enterprising publishers will not only receive the encouragement of the party, and also from the mercantile interests of Guelph, as to make it financially a success.—(Newmarket News.)

NEW EVENING DAILY.—We were pleased to receive on Tuesday last the first number of the daily "Evening Mercury", which is printed in clear type and contains the latest news. The "Mercury" is striding forward into a high position among western journals, and we are pleased to see so able and staunch a Reform journal so prosperous. We shall give the prospectus next week. Go on, friend "Mercury", and prosper.—(Milton Champion.)

THE GUELPH EVENING MERCURY.—We have received the first number of this new daily, and are exceedingly gratified by the prospect it holds. The "Evening Mercury" is published by Messrs. McLagan & Jones, who have, with a great show of enterprise, issued a new office and furnished it with a large quantity of new type. Their evening paper is a sheet of twenty-four columns, and conducted with ability, and we think that the publishers of the "Mercury" have our warmest wishes for the success of their new enterprise.—(Newmarket News.)

THE enterprising publishers of the Guelph Mercury have commenced the publication of a daily paper, the first number of which we have received. It is a very neat appearance.—(Paisley Advocate.)

WE have now received the second number of the Guelph Daily Evening Mercury, and we have received the first number, which is a very creditable specimen of typography, and the editorial department is of considerable ability. We think their enterprise and energy will be amply rewarded.—(Belleville Intelligence.)

THE GUELPH MERCURY has advanced from a weekly to a daily issue. It is a neat little paper, conducted with much ability, and worthy public support and encouragement.—(Orangeville Star.)

NEW DAILY.—We have received the first number of the Guelph Evening Mercury, a new daily paper being issued in that town. We have always looked upon the Mercury as one of our best Canadian journals, and we are pleased to notice that its business is flourishing enough to warrant the issue of a daily. We wish it every success.—(Owen

THE RUSSELL WATCH!

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

- 1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.
- 2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep time.
- 3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine by which, under skilful direction, it is produced.
- 4th—Truth is the essential of each part.
- 5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.
- 6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.
- 7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, is afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.
- 8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.
- 9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watchmakers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.

If Society was as perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you is in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would become monotonous.
