The subject at the "kickers" meeting in connection with the D. R. A. meet this year is bad ammunition, and many of the shooters registered vigorous objections. Col. Gibson was in the chair, and the attendance was large.

Col. Hood, Montreal, stated that old shells had been filled at the Quebec factory and issued to the militia. Major Blacklock said he had spoken to the inspector of the Quebec cartridge factory, who told him that no old shells were refilled. Col. Tilton explained that the executive was greatly disappointed at the trouble caused by the ammunition, and with the intention of obviating further trouble the executive ordered 50,000 rounds from Toronto.

The question of the relative value of rifle and cordite came up, and Sergt. Hayhurst gave his support to rifle, while Lieut. Mitchell, another good shot, objected to the use of rifle. Col. Tilton explained that the executive was considering the question of making it optional whether cordite or rifle should be used.

Complaints were made as to the marking of the R.C.E.R., who are acting as markers. The discussion then closed and the meeting ended.
