How Coverpoint Sees It

The seven Smiths, of Ottawa, are going on tour, and will probably show some of the residents of Uncle Sam's domains all about hockey. Alf will wear armor, and Harry will be disguised with battleaxe and razor.

Lord Northcote does not like American rugby. Perhaps that is the reason that Boss Sullivan of the A. A. U. decided to sever all relations with athletic England.

It is understood that Minor Heil will be held exclusively for exhibition purposes next year, and will not go to the races. He should have something on Dan Patch at that game.

The Suicide Club will hold a session at Savannah, Georgia, this week. Fourteen imported cars are in the event, with many Americans.

It is too bad John D. Rockefeller's testimony came during the football season. It is hard to keep one's attention directed to two rings at one and the same time.

It is said that a spectre moose has appeared in the Maine woods frightening hunters into fits. It looks as if some guilty consciences or bad whisky are working in that neighborhood. Few moose have suffered, although many men have been slain.

The football season is now waning, and all that the United States followers of sports can do this winter will be to sit by the fire and compare T. Cobb's batting average with that of Honus Wagner. In the meantime we will have hockey, and some fine fun with the O. H. A. executive.

The Toronto sporting writers are having the time of their lives, and are quarrelling just like they do in Hamilton, Ont. And it is all over that Dufferin Park meeting.

By the bye, it is a real pity that any bunch of sporting writers would lend themselves to encourage a meeting of the brand and caliber of the Dufferin Park meeting. It was the limit, and then some.

Barracks Basketball Win at Armories

The Barracks basketball team succeeded in doing some rather terrible things to G Company at the armories last night, piling up a score of 85 to 20, Oakley, the Barracks' big centre, himself finding the basket 32 times. The game, despite the score, which was due to lack of practice of the regimental team, was, notwithstanding the score, very interesting, though inclined to roughness in places.

ALL DISTRESS FROM INDIGESTION OR AN UPSET STOMACH VANISHES

ALL MISERY IN THE STOMACH WILL BE RELIEVED FIVE MINUTES AFTER TAKING SOME DIAPEPSIN.

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of Indigestion and Stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested or lies like a lump of lead in the stomach. That everything you eat turns to acid, Stomach gas and Stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing Biliousness, Headaches, Dizziness and Indigestion, Heartburn, Nauseous Breath, Constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—Indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of Stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour Stomach, which belches gas and eructs undigested food, causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness.

All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take fifty cents to your Pharmacist for a case of Pape's Diapepsin. Eat a triangle, and five minutes later your Stomach will do what a healthy Stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment, and without you realizing that you have a Stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

LONGBOAT DEFEATS RELAY

Niagara Falls, Nov. 23.—Tom Longboat in his relay race at the Olympia rink this evening vanquished his four opponents by two laps. The course was sixteen laps to the mile. Large crowds of spectators were present to see the famous Indian run. For the first mile W. Hughes, of this city, was the opponent, and at the finish of the first mile the Indian led by one and a half laps. Strumball, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., lost one lap on the second mile. Altman, of Buffalo, took up the third mile and at the half-distance, two and a half miles, the Indian led by three laps. At three and a half miles Driscoll, the champion long distance runner of the Seventy-fourth Regiment, A. C., Buffalo, tackled the Indian and decreased his lead to two laps. At the four-mile post Hughes again tackled the Indian and decreased his lead to a lap and a half, but the Indian put on a spurt and easily gained the lost ground and added half a lap more.

The last half-mile Strumball tried the Indian a second time, decreasing his lead to two laps, by which the Indian won the race.

He ran in good form, keeping up a steady, killing pace for his opponents, using his head throughout the race. Time, 25 minutes and 10 seconds. Longboat covered the first two miles in 9 minutes and 25 seconds.

Tim O'Rourke, of Toronto, was present with Longboat. In an interview with Longboat this evening he claimed he does not expect to make a match with Strumball. The latter wishes to make the match for ten miles, while he (Longboat) will not make a match for less than twenty miles.

Varsity Strong TO MEET TIGERS

Deciding Game for the Rugby Championship Likely To Be Great Battle.

When the Tigers run up against Varsity at the Rosedale grounds next Saturday, it will be one of the prettiest exhibitions of rugby that has been seen since Varsity met the Rough Riders at the same place five years ago.

The two teams are about as evenly matched as it is possible, the Tigers having slightly the advantage.

The Tigers have played together for years, and know their own game, and have the confidence that comes from years of success. They are slightly heavier, too, on the wing line, and have in addition, probably the best kicking half in Canada in the person of Simpson.

On the other hand, there isn't a doubt that as far as snappy tackling goes, of the real diving kind, the Tigers are away out in the practice compared to the Collegians. Captain Lee himself could give any one of the Tigers lessons on that subject. The wing line is lighter than Hamilton, but it is game, and if they play a good, scrappy game there isn't much doubt that they will be able to stop Simpson's senior.

The back division that, owing to inexperience, has been causing him some sleepless nights. However, the showing in the last couple of games has made him feel that they are beginning to work a perfect combination between the line, backing up the play, so that there can be no disastrous fumbles. Gall's playing this year has been phenomenal, and though he cannot equal Simpson in the kicking, in every other respect he is quite a match for any of the Tigers.

He has even been indulging in Art Moore's specialty, the long runs around the end. Dixon at full, has been a find for Varsity. He has a good pair of hands and can use his head in a crisis, and he has saved many a ticklish situation this year. Lawson, too, is a factor to be reckoned with, and it will take the Tiger wings all their time to stop his bucks. Coryell, while not the field captain that Ballard is, handles the ball well. He has done fine work this year. Altogether there is little to choose between the teams, and the man who ventures into the realms of prophecy regarding the result will need to have his nerve with him.

At last the umpire has a friend. Judge Foster, of Chicago, fined Robt. E. Cantwell $75 because he indulged in the innocent little pleasure of slugging Umpire Kern, at one of the Boston-Chicago games last summer.

Joe Gans has a few things to say regarding McFarland-Nelson match. Coming from one who ought to know, from a rather strenuous experience, of what he speaks, they may be of interest.

"Do I think McFarland has a chance with Nelson? No. Never in a thousand years. McFarland is no hitter, and where does he figure to win? Nelson is the wonder of this age, just as Jim Corbett was the wonder of his; just as McGovern was wonderful and just as Jeffries was invincible.

"This fellow Nelson is so far above anyone in the world of his weight that you can't see them."

PAPKE CONTINUES 10 TO 7 FAVORITE

They Are Also Offering Even Money Ketchell Won't Last 19 Rounds.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 24.—Billy Papke knocked out one of his sparring partners in dead earnest at the San Rafael gymnasium on Sunday. Ollie Cornett, a promising heavyweight, was the victim.

Papke was swinging away in the third round of the bout, when suddenly he reached Cornett with a stiff right to the jaw. He tried to check it, but the move came too late, and Cornett went down for keeps. He was revived shortly, but was in no condition to go ahead.

Papke finished up his exhibition of four rounds with Al Kaufmann. He apparently hit Kaufmann whenever he wanted to and roughed it with the big California heavyweight in a way which made his visitors gasp. Papke is down to 157 pounds and will do his last boxing before the match tomorrow afternoon.

Ketchell also attracted a crowd at his Colma quarters, working both with McClure and Harry Mared. The Michiganander is around 153 pounds, but will work as late as Tuesday before he lays off. Betting on the bout is still at 10 to 7, with even money offered that Ketchell will last more than eighteen rounds.

GIANT GRIZZLY ROAMING 'ROUND

Bear That Is Terrorizing the Squamish Valley Makes an 18-Inch Track.

Vancouver, Nov. 23.—There is an extraordinarily large bear of the grizzly species roaming around the Squamish Valley. For years there have been many stories about the big brute. And of late these stories have been further supplemented by people who have actually seen the animal, and who fully confirm all that has been said about its size.

That it is an extraordinarily large animal may be judged by the fact that there are half a dozen reputable residents of the Squamish Valley who have seen the animal's tracks, and who are anxious to affirm that they were 18 inches in length by actual measurement. A bear track is very much like the mark of a naked human foot, only broader across the toes. There are only four toes, too, on the bear's foot as compared with five on the human foot.

As a big game district the Squamish Valley is getting a reputation this fall and winter that bids fair to outclass even that of the Kootenay and Atlin districts—at least for bear and deer shooting. To many people the fact that the grizzly bears in the Squamish Valley will come as a surprise. But it is true, nevertheless, and the hides of two grizzlies are in the city right now as proof. Messrs. Harris and Robinson, two well-known upper Squamish residents, secured the animal who about two weeks ago was a bear that weighed over five hundred pounds, the other, one of her cubs, and tipped the scales at 220 pounds.

The cub's coat is in fine condition, but there was a lot of long, unshed, last season's hair on the older bear. The nimrods who got these two intended organizing a party soon and going back to the same locality, where it is believed several other grizzly cubs and the mate of the she bear may be secured.

Over One Hundred Bears Shot.
Since last fall considerably over one hundred black bears have been killed in the comparatively limited area of the lower Squamish Valley. This is no "bear story," but a statement that well-known Squamish residents say can be proved by actual figures.

Regarding the stories about the monster grizzly, a number of Squamish residents have actually seen the huge brute while out hunting armed with only shotguns, and they were glad enough to get away without any attempt to start an argument with big Mister Bruin. Of the presence of particularly large bears of the grizzly species in the Squamish Valley, Mr. Ford has not the slightest doubt, as less than a week ago he personally measured bear tracks that totalled fourteen inches under the rule, while he has seen a number of other tracks during the past month that measured twelve and thirteen inches.

Meanwhile the Squamish residents would be glad to hear that this big grizzly, whose very mention is beginning to cause a shudder of fear on the part of the women of the valley, had at last been bagged by some lucky nimrod.

VIENNESE STUDENTS CLASH.

Vienna, Nov. 23.—The German and Italian students attending the University of Vienna came into serious collision in the university precincts this morning, and before the police drove the demonstrators away revolvers had been freely used and a number of young men wounded. The trouble was occasioned by an Italian demonstration in favor of the establishment of an Italian university at Trieste.

FOE TO REPRESENT THE IRISH PEOPLE

Lord Ashtown Is Chosen by Lot to Sit in British House of Lords.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—Lord Ashtown has at last secured a seat in the House of Lords, as a representative Irish peer, but it is in keeping with his whole history that he owes his seat to chance and not to the desire of a majority of his fellow peers.

It may not be generally known that Irish peers are not entitled by right of their peerage to sit in the British House of Lords. The majority of them, of course, are the holders of British peerages as well as their Irish titles and sit by virtue of the British titles, but the Irish peers are entitled to elect a certain number of their fellows to represent them in the upper house.

Ashtown has long been trying to get into the House of Lords, but he has been defeated at every vacancy. This time the vacancy was caused by the death of Lord Rosse, who in addition to being a popular nobleman was a great scientist. Ashtown was opposed by Lord Farnham, and they received an equal number of votes. The proceedings which followed were distinctly medieval.

The clerk of the crown and hanaper for Ireland, an official whose precise duties no one seems to know, went to London and when the House of Lords was assembled appeared at the bar and informed the lord chancellor that a tie had taken place. The clerk of paper in a glass and drew out one which contained Ashtown's name. Ashtown was then declared duly elected.

Ashtown is one of the bitterest enemies Ireland ever had. His hobby is collecting and publishing what he calls "Outrages From Ireland," in which every occurrence which can be twisted into the appearance of disorder is magnified to convince the English people that the people of Ireland are not fit to govern themselves.

The famous explosion at his shooting lodge in Glenahely attracted considerable attention. It was published far and wide as an attempt to blow up the lodge while he was sleeping in it, but the police discovered that the material of which the bomb was made came from another of his estates, and that Ashtown was sitting up waiting when the explosion occurred. No one has ever been prosecuted for the offense.

A GREAT VOLUME OF PRAISE

SO STRONG AND VIGOROUS ARE THE STATEMENTS MADE FOR MI-O-NA CURING STOMACH TROUBLES THEY ALMOST CHALLENGE BELIEF—THE STERLING STATEMENT OF A LONDON RESIDENT CAN BE EASILY VERIFIED BY READERS OF THIS PAPER.

There is a reason for everything. Then the stomach itself does all the rest.

Christian Hohner, of Tavistock, Ont., says: "Mrs. Hohner had suffered for months with a disagreeable, annoying and dangerous stomach trouble. Her stomach was weak and would not digest the food she took, and it fermented and formed gas, which made her nervous, weak and languid. She used remedies, but none relieved until she tried Mi-o-na, put up by the R. T. Booth Company, Limited, Fort Erie, and this remedy gave her a good relief and made her much better and stronger than before. Mi-o-na has our strong endorsement. This remedy can be procured at W. T. Strong's pharmacy."
