GLUB

DIBS AND DABS

ANNA and BANDANA

NO USE

OF SQUAWKIN'

TH' P'LICE ARE

TOO BUSY TAKIN'

MOTOR BANDITS ROB LONDONER NEAR SPRINGBANK

MUST RUSH WORK TO COVER GROUND

Committee Chairmen Order Special Sessions To Guide 1924 Trustees.

TALK COAL SAVING

With the close of the year fast rawing on, special meetings of com-nittees of the Board of Education are looming up in order that recom-mendations for the guidance of the 324 board, together with the com-letion of the 1923 program, may be onsidered.

Tomorrow afternoon, in addition to be meeting to discuss the combinag of the duties of secretary and reasurer, a special committee apointed to inquire into the merits of combustion scheme will also be a combustion scheme will also be neld. The plan, which was suggested to the board some time ago is for new style grate with a forced draft which will burn finer and much which will burn finer and much heaper coal, than at present. The heaper coal, than at present. The meeting will last but a short time as it is felt that the expenditure would be too great and therefore any recommendations will be turned over to the 1924 board.

The members of the special committee are: Chairman, A. N. Udy, Trustee B. N. Campbell, Trustee A. E. Silverwood, Architect, L. E. Carruthers and Superintendent of Works, Cantain W. Robinson. The meeting

Captain W. Robinson. The meeting will convene at 4 o'clock in the com-

SOUTH LONDON PAVING PLANNED NEXT YEAR

Council "Initiates" Work On Askin Street and Byron Avenue.

Two new asphalt pavements have een "initiated" by the city council or construction in South London in A sheet asphalt payement on Askin street, from Wharncliffe road to Wortley road. The probable cost of the work is $20,074.67, of which $2,619.52 is to be paid by the city The approximate cost per foot frontage is $4.83, and the approximate annual cost for ten years is 64c.

(b) A sheet asphalt pavement on Byron avenue, from Wharncliffe road to Wortley road. The probable cost of the work is $14,553 88, of which $1,973.55 is to be paid by the city. The approximate cost per foot frontage is $3.98, and the approximate annual cost for ten years is 53c. These projects are subject to the approval of the taxpayers involved.

PROMISES THE LASH FOR NEXT OFFENDER

Judge Macbeth Sends G. A. Lemere to Reformatory on Assault Charge.

G. A. Lemire, who was yesterday found guilty by Judge Macbeth on a charge of indecent assault against little girl of five years, was sen tenced to not less than three months and not more than two years less one day in the Ontario reformatory, when day in the Ontario reformatory, when he appeared before the judge this morning for sentence. In passing sentence on Lemire, Judge Macbeth delivered a scathing lecture, stating he was inclined to order the accused flogged. The fact that he was sentenced without a flogging was not to be taken as a precedent, as the next man to come before him on such a charge would feel the lash.

LONDON ROAD APPEALS AGAINST LEVY OF CITY

Street Railway Takes Tax Case Before Macbeth.

Judge Talbot Macbeth presides a 10:30 a.m. temorrow over a special court of appeal against city assess-ment levied by Commissioner Harry

Six cases are listed for the hear-ing, the London Street Railway Company, Canadian National Express ny, Smallman and Ingram, and T. F. Kingsmill, all appealing against the amount, or the justice of their assessment, while Hon. Charles Hynan and F. E. Jarvis are appealing

PROMISE BETTER LIGHTING.

Bandits In Motor Escape After Robbing Londoner On Road Near Springbank

MAURICE CONRADI

Arrangement of Scenes Evidence of Exceptional

Artistic Ability.

COSTUMES PLEASING

Much credit is due Miss Laura Cook, Miss Muriel Lancaster and David Carr under whose direction

"The Pageant of the Year," shown last night at Ryerson School, was put on. More than 255 children took part in the huge panorama and it must true stage manner to the diminutive

FLORIDA WATER SENDS

TWO CITIZENS TO JAI

Two drunks, both of them well known n police court circles, declared solemn-at 10 o'clock.

ference, last spring.

Herbert John Glaspell Loses $100 When Attacked by Thugs.

WATCH UNTOUCHED

Knocked Unconscious From Behind While Grappling With Thief.

Herbert John Glaspell, 342 Hamilton road, was held up and robbed of between $95 and $100 on the Pipe of between $95 and $100 on the Pipe Line road, just east of the Springbank Park gates, last night shortly, after 8 o'clock. Glaspell, who was driving a touring car, was crowded to the left side of the road by a larger machine, which came up behind him on his left. One of the robbers a slight chan jumped on hind him on his left. One of the robbers, a slight chap, jumped on the running board of Glaspell's car and ordered him to stop. The latter hit the man, but another stout individual jumped into the tonneau and Mr. Glaspell cannot remember what happened after that as he was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head. He finally reached a nearby cottage and later was taken home. the head. He finally reached a hearby cottage and later was taken home. Interviewed by The Advertiser at his home, Mr. Glaspell stated he was driving to Byron along the Pipe Line road, and after leaving the pavement at Springbank Park gates he was the take conter of the road. He ment at Springbank Fark gates he stuck to the center of the road. He heard another auto coming behind him and started to pull over on the right side of the highway, when the big car also swerved to the right and crowded him towards the embentment.

bankment.

"His wheel was just about locked with mine," said Glaspell, "and the first thing I knew a man jumped on to my running board and told me to stop. I scuffled with him, and hit him with my right hand. My knuckles are still sore from the blow I hit him. The man fell back a bit, and another man jumped into the and another man jumped into the back of my car, and he must have hit me over the head, for I don't remember anything after that. "I am positive they were driving a Willys-Knight car, because I've been around garages for eleven years, and I recognized the hood as that of a Willys-Knight.

"When I was ordered to stop I put my foot on the clutch and pulled off my glove and hit the man in the face. The first I knew afterwards was when I reached the gates of the have taken weeks of training and sion brought with it a glimps park and then I saw a light in a house and I made my way there. I don't know whose place it was, but I am told a man named H. Fountain there, and he finally got in touch with my brother Frank, who ives at 490 Central avenue. He and Mr. Cook came after me and took

Mr. Glaspell could give no real Miss Cook and the appreciation of description of his assailants beyond the fact that the man who first jumped to the running board was slight, while the man who jumped to the man who jumped to the man who jumped the ma the back seat was stout. first man wore a peak cap, he stated.

Steal Money.

Mr. Glaspell said he had four or five Bank of Montreal bills stolen from him. He wasn't sure of the exact amount taken. The robbers did not take his watch or any other belongings.

The injured man was not attend ed by a doctor until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when Dr. Macfie made an examination. Glaspell had a big bump on the back of his head and complains of pains in his head.

complains of pains in his back. It will be several days before he is fit to go back to his business. Provincial Constable T. Y. Straton is working on the case and innterviewed Mr. Glaspell this morn

MRS. ENRICO CARUSO.

PUT FAIR DEFICIT IN TAX RATE. The people are going to pay out of their general tax rate for the Westof that association say was occasioned by the reduced attendance fee The sum of $9,504 86 was passed for

Despaired of Life at 50 Strong and Well at 70

Mr. Jacob H. Macksey, 336 Midland Ave., Midland,

Liver Pills for over 20 years and I feel that I owe my life to them. 70 years of age, weigh 217 pounds and can work as well as any young Launches Appeal For Wee Refugees at Georgetown Orphanage.

TELLS OF ESCAPE

There arrived in London this orning a messenger from Armenia. She comes with the story of a cople crucified for their religion by the Turk who knows no mercy. The visitor is no other than Miss. Sirvart Poladian, 18-year-old daughter of an Armenian doctor, whose mother was massacred and whose father and rother only escaped after bitter persecution. Her visit to the city is in the interest of the Georgetown Home for Armenian Orphans, for which she is making her appeal to the women of Western Ontario at the civic hanquet to the Women's Institutes, which is being held at Smallman & Ingram's tonight. She speaks again at the Swiss engineer, is on trial, accused of killing Vaslav Vorovsky, Russian delegate to the Lausanne peace co-Talbot Street Baptist Church Wednesday evening. Dr. A. J. Vining of Toronto arrived in the city this morning and will introduce her at the banquet tonight.

All the tragedy of Armenia and all the fortitude of a people determined not to be broken are wrapped up in the personality of Miss Poladian. Olive in complexion, and framed with jet black hair, simply arranged, her cheeks are touched with crimson. Her eyes are very dark, with long black lashes shielding them, and in spite of what she has undergone, happy youth is shining there.

When she told the story of how she had escaped from the Turk during the 1920 massacre by crawling on her not to be broken are wrapped up in had escaped from the Turk during the 1920 massacre by crawling on her hands and knees, in company with her 4-year-old brother and her father, when thousands of bullets were whizzing through the air, she retained the bright and happy smile which is characteristic of her. She shivered at the recollection, indeed, but there was no hopelessness in her attitude toward what she has undergone. toward what she has undergone.

It was only when she mentioned her mother, the lovely mother, when was brutally slaughtered, with 12,000 other Armenians on that occasion she lost her happy smile for a mo ment. But was only for a moment.

"Oh, it was awful," she said. Jus that, nothing more. But her expres rehearsing to develop such a troup of perfected actors and actresses.

Every one of the participants from the older boys who spoke out in a troup were only 10,000," she said; "12,000 Armenians were slaughtered in 20 little girl who represented spring-time, displayed rare confidence and beautifully, having been educated in the date of the state of the st would do justice to those displayed Canadian immigration department," in a gorgeous Broadway production. she said with a sorrowful expression. The arrangement of the scenes, and lighting effects showed exceptional difficult to obtain because an Aran opportunity of seeing such a creditable display. It was probably creditable display. It was probably the most gorgeous and interesting pageant ever presented by London

Protest Innocence, Although
Chief Swears the Pair Helpless.

Helpl

WOUNDED GIRL SHOWS

SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT

May Lydell, Manor Park girl, who was accidentally shot by Clayton canson a week ago, and who yesterlay had her right leg amputated thove the knee in the hotes of preventing death from gangiene poisoning, which set in from 71 shot pelly this morning that they were anything but drunk when arrested by Constable Parker on King street last night The constable, however and Sergt. Roy Monteith both stated the men were practically helpless when they were brought in, and to cap the evidence, Chief Birrell declared he happened to be in the police station when the accused were brought in, and that the Sergt. Monteith declared that from the odor the men had probably been drinking Florida water. "If you keep on drinking this stuff you'll be found dead," warned the magistrate. "I'm going to fine you each $10 and costs or ten days in jail this

SISTER OF JUTLAND HERO WILL VISIT IN DOMINION

Associated Press Despatch. London, Nov. 5 .- According to the London newspapers, Lily Cornwall, 18-year-old sister of Jack Cornwall, V.C. and boy hero of the battle of Jutland, is going to Canada with her sister, Mrs. Payne, and the latter's husband, who was disabled in the war, and their family, there to join her brother George.

arbitration.

The vice-president declined, however, to consider the prospects of a reduced fare to force a voluntary sale of the road on or before March, 1925, other than to remark significantly, "We'll see about that." her brother George.

While Lily and the other n of the family have been living in penury, huge sums of money have been collected for memorials, of which a big proportion still lies idle.

CANADIAN CLUB. The third meeting of the Canadian Club 1923-24 season will be held at the Blue Dragon Tea Room, 247 Dundas street, on Wednesday, at 6

WADESBORO, N.C. NEGRO

SENTENCED TO FORSWEAR HAM

not be required. This response is much appreciated by the federation and they accept with a feeling of goodwill from the citizens of London to the Women's Institutes. Much of the work in connection with the billsting was done by the chamber. Half Glimartin, Diew, Miss O. Finnegan, St. Augustine, Miss O. Finnegan, St. Augustine, Miss C. Kightman, Blyth; Miss Grace Wightman, Wingham; Mrs. J. E. McKay, Braemar; Miss Marion McLeod, Embro; Mrs. S. G. Kitchen, Mrs. T. Culver, Miss R. Rycraft, Miss V. Kairle, Blue billeting was done by the chamber of commerce, assisted by the billet-ing committee of the institutes.

The following is a list of those who is a list of those had registered up to noon today:
Mrs. Harry Rogers, Mrs. N. Baker,
Mrs. Simon Shier, Arkona; Mrs.
J. Shier, Kincardine; Miss Annie
S. Pearson, Hickson, Mrs. A. George, Appin; Mrs. F. Nicholls, Appin; Mrs. W. J. H. Willoughby, Hyde

ighting effects showed exception artistic ability. The Halloween scene where all the tricks of stage illusion were brought into play, was outstanding in itself.

As a pianist who accompanied the children as they sung, Miss Lancaster's work was excellent. It is to be hoped the children of Ryerson School hoped the children of Ryerson School will put on the pageant again that will put on the pageant a sures.

Mr. Ivey voices the further opinion that the city councillors should have been fair enough to submit their price to the people in December.

"We consider our price very reasonable" he stated. "As a matter of fact it is much the same as the valuation placed on the road four years ago by Sir Adam's engineers. Since that time we have made considerable improvements."

From Mr. Ivey's attitude it could be gathered that in the opinion of the company, the people would supimprovements."

From Mr. Ivey's attitude it could be gathered that in the opinion of the company, the people would support a proposal to buy the road by arhitration.

Miss — C. Cox, Aughrim; Shetland; Mrs. J. C. Cox, Aughrim; Shetland; Mrs. John Darville, Alvinston; Mrs. Arthur McConnell, Mrs. Norman H. Arthur McConnell, Mrs. John A. Gil-Adrian, Muirkirk; Mrs. John A. Gil-Miss Annie Walker, No. 9 Mosa; C. V. Tuckey Arthur McConnell, Mrs. Norman H.
Adrian, Muirkirk; Mrs. John A. Gilles, Miss Annie Walker, No. 9 Mosa;
Mrs. Wm. McIvor, Mrs. C. V. Tuckey,
Lobo; Mrs. F. Heath, Mount Brydges;
Mrs. Thos. Waters, Malden; Mrs.
Harry Fox. Mrs. Neil A. McKellar, Wallacetown; Mrs. Austen Hodgins,
Birr; Mrs. J. L. Vincent, Mrs. T.
Boone, Miss A. Gamble, Mrs. T. Baynton, Mrs. J. Kenner, Bothwell; Mrs.
D. A. McColl, Mrs. James Allen, Appin; Mrs. (Dr.) Glenn, Wardsville;
Mrs. Albert Atkin, Mrs. William H.
Chapman, Inwood; Miss E. P. Hazelwood, Mrs. R. Sticks, Wroxeter;
Mrs. Peter King, Mrs. Wroxeter;
Mrs. Peter King, Mrs. Wroxeter;
Mrs. Peter King, Mrs. M. Sellers,
Bluevale; Mrs. H. A. Ramsay, Tara;
Lillian Doig, Ethel Downey, Fordwich; Mrs. Thos. Brewer, Miss Mary MacVannalt, St. Marys; Mrs. D. G.
Leitch, Mrs. W. G. King, Chesley;
Mrs. Amos Smith, Mrs. John Allen,
Molesworth; Mrs. J. Middleton, Miss
Addie Jones, Essex; Mrs. T. Plant,
Woodslee; Miss J. Colquhoun, the C.
Clachapa, Mrs. Wm. Weldle, Mrs. C. (Disciple)

Tyler, St. Pauls; Mrs. J. Thistle, Mrs. Kollman, Miss E. McCallum, Hampstead; Miss N. Ware, Gadshill; Miss L. Houck, Miss J. Roadhouse, Stratford; Miss N. Coneybear, Listowel; Mrs. J. C. McMillan, Mrs. A. J. McMurchy, Crinan; Mrs. A. J. McMurchy, Crinan; Mrs. H. A. Urquhart, Miss M. Garrett, Thorndale; Mrs. A. D. McGugan, Mrs. John G. Gillies, Rodney; Mrs. W. T. Turner, Miss Ella Gilmartin, Drew; Miss B. McAllister, St. Augustine, Miss O. Finne-

Mrs. S. G. Kitchen, Mrs. T. Culver, Miss B. Rycraft, Miss V. Kairle, Blue

'WET" MAJORITY NOW

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE them, including the four cities, Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and

Medicine Hat. The contest resolved itself into prohibition and government control, A and D. with B and C as representing the beer advocates, having no chance of achieving success. On the to count second or later choices. Clause D, in the words of the ballot, means "the sale of all liquors by or through government vendorsbeer to be consumed on licensed premises and in private residences wine and spirits to be purchased in limited quantities under permit issued by the government, under government control and regulation. The bill to cover the acceptance of this double principle has yet to be drafted.

MAN THROUGH PUBLICITY

Relatives of the late Thomas William Burnitt of Webb, N.Y., did not public sentiment toward prohibition is changing and that Ontario will fall into line with Manitoba, British woh reside on Maitland street.

Mr. Burnitt was foreman of a construction gang of the Western Union Telegraph Company and wa $50 years of age. He formerly resided in London, and is survived by his two sisters, the Misses Annie and Nellie Burnitt, $73 Maitland street, and one brother Alfred of Kitchener. brother, Alfred of Kitchener. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from 373 Mait-

ATTENDED MISSION RALLY. Among the organizations which for "Do you regard the vote in Alberta as significant?" The Advertiser ask-ed Mr. Nickle.

FOR CHEAPER GAS Ald. Wilson Says Sir Adam Has Promised To Work For Reduction. FREE HAND

BECK WILL FIGHT

Sir Adam Beck will battle in the Ontario Legislature for cheaper gas in London, as requested by the city

This is the report from Ald. William Wilson, who explains that in conversation with the member for London he received the assurance that every effort would be expended in this direction. "The only fault that Sir Adam pointed out," explains Ald. Wilson, was that the council stipulated a reduction to 90 cents. He says we need not have named any figure, but just let him get the best price he could."

The proposal to ask Sir Adam to take a hand in this affair came from the council at the instigation of Ald.

TO TAKE CIVIL ACTION IF PRESS EXCLUDED

W. Spence Places Complaint Against P. C. Towle Before Police Commission.

The complaints of W. Spence, C. P. R. trainman, who alleges he was not properly treated by Constable Towle of the London police force re-cently, will be aired at a special An appeal from another citizen who alleges wrongful search of his premises will be dealt with also by the

In conversation with The Advertiser today, Mr. Spence stated he had nothing to hide in the matter and would demand that the reporters be allowed to attend the gathering, otherwise, he would take civil action against the constable. Magistrate Graydon stated he had no objection to the press being in attendance at commission meetings, but did not think reporters she be present when any member of the force was being disciplined. Chief Birrell would not admit that a meeting was scheduled for this afternoon, but that if there was a meeting reporters would not be allowed to attend.

used by bandits at an early hour this EARLY VETERANS' MERGER

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Although Italian consulate on the second floor of the same building, resulted in a fire merger no immediate steps towards unity are being taken at the meeting of the council of the Dominion Vetadjoining premises. The disaster caused losses totaling $200,000.

The Course stricted by the force of the and the Tuberculosis Veterans' Asso-Terror-stricken by the force of the ciation representatives expressed explosion, which evidently exceeded their willingness to merge, but at the their calculations, the bandits fled, but same time they desired that sufficient identity be retained to insure atten-tion to the special needs of their members. It was generally felt that fusion would be a matter of education The explosion and fire prevented the and evolution.

PROTECT YOUR HEALTH. The Tonic and Laxative Effect of Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets will keep the system in a healthy condition and thus ward off all attacks of Colds, Grip or Influenza. The pany, stock destroyed and premises grove. 30c. Made in Canada.—Advt. slightly damaged by water, damage

> Agency FANNY PARKER CANDIES 60c Lb.

STRONG'S Drug Store 184 DUNDAS STREET.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS 15c, 20c and 25c each

J. GAMMAGE & SONS

207 DUNDAS STREET.

Phones 636-63. Mail Orders Given Prompt

Spectacles, $1.95 REMOVAL SALE CONTINUES

Attention.

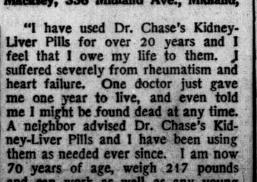

until we move into our new store, opposite Loew's and Allen's Theatres. All our present stock must be sold, as we are starting in our new store with all new stock. We are offering all stock at a greatly reduced price.

F. Steele Moderate Prices.

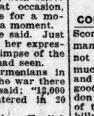

vidow of the world-famed tenor, is evidence of the officers was correct.

At the instigation of Ald. Douglass, better fighting system is promised r the West London breakwater.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Tyler, St. Pauls; Mrs. J. Thistle, Mrs. Alma Lupton, Hillcrest; Miss F. Kollman, Miss E. McCallum, Hamp-

WITH WINTER ALMOST NOW IN VIEW

T' PUT THINGS ON TH' HUMMER

TH ONLY THING THAT WE CAN DO IS COUNT TH' DAYS TILL SUMMER !

-BY HARRY MOYER

IN OTHER WORDS THEY OUGHTA GIT, TH

THEIR BRAIN BINS!

DUST BLOWN OUTTA

MADISON, WIS. PROFESSOR SUGGESTS

INTELLIGENCE TESTS FOR BRIDES AND GROOMS

RUMMY RHYMES

Building, Causing $200,000 Loss.

Canadian Press Despatch Montreal, Nov. 6 .- Nitro-glycerine in the offices of the Charles Ciceri Company, wholesale grocers and importers, which gutted the structure and damaged Terror-stricken by the force of the practically straight fight between not before they were seen by several charwomen and janitors hurrying to their early morning labors. bandits from getting away with any of the valuables either in the Ciceri prempresent showing Clause D has such a is or in the consulate. Two firemen were injured. The firms affected by the outbreak, with the losses decisive majority over all other clauses that it will not be necessary by fire and water, are: Charles Ciceri

MAJORITY OF 4,500. Canadian Press Despatch. Edmonton, Nov. 6.—With a few polls to be heard from, Returning Of-ficer Wilson of Edmonton riding, states that Clause D now has a ma jority of 4,500 over A. There were 25,000 votes cast in the local constituency, the largest in the city's his-know of his death until apprised of the fact in The Advertiser last Friday. Friends of Burnitt did not know pealed to Chief Birrell to find them. The chief turned the information over to The Advertiser and the publicity which resulted was the means of locating Mr. Burnitt's two sisters woh reside on Maitland street.

LEARN OF DEATH OF WEBB

land street. The services will be conducted by Rev. John Garbutt of Dundas Center Methodist Church. Inerment will take place in Woodland

Among the organizations which forsook their regular meetings in order to attend the young people's raily in connection with the World Missions conference in the First Methodist Church last night, were the Askin Street, First Methodist, Ridout Street, Colbone Street, Empress Avenue, Dundas Center and Robinson Memorial Epworn Leagues, the First Presbyterian Chu Service Band, the First Congregation Church Young People's League, the S. C. Club of St. Andrew's Church, at the C. E. U. of the Church of Chri (Disciples)

- Moyer

Nitro-Glycerine Blast Ignites

CRACKSMEN ESCAPE

84 St. Peter street, an dthe safe in the

PUBLIC OPINION

MUST SEEK VOTE

Ferguson Will Mark Time

Until Powerful Forces

Ask Referendum.

NICKLE SAYS LITTLE

Special to The Advertiser.
Toronto, Nov. 6.—While the wee hail the result of the vote in Al

Columbia, Alberta and Quebec, berta yesterday as an indication that while prohibitionists declare that no such conclusions are to be drawn from the verdict given in the western province, the provincial govern-ment has not formulated any policy in regard to a liquor referendum nor will it do so until it is manifest that t is demanded by a strong body of Premier Ferguson is out of the city today and will not return until omorrow. Attorney-General Nickle

as to the future policy of the gov-ernment, which he said was only within the province of the prime minister, but he had no hesitation in speaking as to its present policy, as declared before the last election, namely, to enforce the Ontario temperance act as passed by the legislature, and to allow future policy to depend on the condition and devel-opment of public opinion.

"Anything has a political significance that shows the trend of politica

Special to The Advertiser.
Strathroy, Nov. 5.—Mrs. R. A.
Wilmot, Victoria street, entertained four tables of bridge.
Mrs. W. T.
Rapley won the first prize and Mrs.
Mabel Nettleton the boody prize.

ON LIQUOR LAW