MR GUILTE'S DEATH DEEPLY MOURNED

Short Sketch of His Life—Funeral Held Last Thursday—

The many friends of the late Mr. John F. Guite, the well-known merchant of Maria, and former member for Bonaventure County were very much pained to learn of his sudden death which happened at the close of the day's business as he had returned from his store to his residence. The funeral took place on Thursday at the Maria church and was very largely attended.

In March 1897 on the death of Mr. W. LeD Fauvel, than M. P. for Bonaventure Mr. Guite was elected by a majority of over 700 over Mr. Charles Cyr, his opponent. This election was one of the hottest in the history of the county and was fought out on the Manitoba School question. Mr. Guite's election meaning that the county approved of the arrangement arrived at by Sir Wilfred Laurier's government with the Greenway government. It also coincided with the appointment by the Pope of Cardinal Merly de Val as Papal delegate to investigate and report upon that question. The appointment had an appreciable effect upon the return of the Liberal candidate.

In 1900 Mr. Guite retired from public life not having the time to give up to it owing to his varied business interests. He was one of the trading citizens of the county and took active interest in all matters that concerned it. He was President of the Liberal Association of the county and only a few months ago when the question of a convention at New Carlisle was mooted to select a candidate for Commons, wrote a letter to Hon. Mr. Marcell stating that he did not deem a convention necessary as the Liberals of Bonaventure County had already made their choice and that it was unanimous.

Mr. Guite leaves a widow, several sons, the oldest of whom, Mr. Ernest Guite will keep up the business and several daughters. Of these three are nuns, two at the Ursuline Convent at Quebec and one at the Convent of Jesus. Mary at Hall and another is the wife of Mr. Alphonse Bernard, merchant of Carleton, Que.

Mr. Marcell being prevented from attending the funeral sent a message of sympathy to the bereaved family.

TO PUT A CHECK ON SPECULATING IN POTATOES

Food Controller Announces Steps to Prevent Inflation of Prices.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—A check is to be put on the speculation in potatoes. The food controller announced steps to prevent inflation of prices. From information obtained through the fruit and vegetable committee, the controller considers that in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal and other centres in Ontario and Quebec the prices of Ontario and Quebec potatoes to the consumer should be about $1.25 per bag of 90 lbs. There appears to be an ample supply now assured to meet a largely increased consumption, which will doubtless follow a drop in prices.

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Buckingham, Que., May 24, 1915. For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach. I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well.

SAYS THERE IS HUGE WASTAGE OF FOOD IN CANADA

Estimate of Losses is Given by the Dominion Food Controller.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—The enormous wastage in food throughout the Dominion is indicated in statistics compiled by the food controller. It is estimated that owing to carelessness and inefficiency there is wasted in garbage every year food to the value of $56,000,000, or about $7.00 per total population. By complete organization and rigid economy it is thought the cost of living can be reduced by five cents per day for each individual. Counting on the elimination of garbage waste, this would mean an annual saving of $25.55 per head, or a national grand total saving of $204,400,000, enough to feed an army of one million men for a year.

FERGUSON—POLLEY.

Parrsboro, Sept. 19.—The manse was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 7.30 on Wednesday evening, Sept. 12th, when Miss Ruby Delphina Polley, eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. J. F. pastor of St. James' Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Polly, was united in marriage to Dr. John Archibald Ferguson, of Dominion No. 6, C. B. The house decorations, which were very artistic, the color scheme being yellow, white and mauve. In the drawing room was an arch, intricate in design, of yellow festooning, tastefully adorned with yellow and mauve flowers, beneath which the bridal party stood.

J. N. Fraser presided at the piano and gave a splendid rendition of the Wedding March, from Logengrin, as the bride entered on the arm of her brother, J. D. Polley, by whom she was given away. She was beautifully gowned in ivory duchess satin with chiffon, silver lace and pearl trimmings, and wore the conventional bridal veil held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Mildred Polley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a very pretty gown of pale yellow silk and net with trimmings of yellow roses. Little Miss Phyllis Kirkpatrick, in a dainty frock of white silk and carrying a basket of sweet peas, made a very winsome flower girl. The groom was supported by Corporal Harold Polley, of the signalling Corps, Halifax.

After the ceremony a reception was held, about forty guests being present. Later Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson motored to Amherst en route to their home in Cape Breton. The bride's going away costume was of navy blue serge with trimmings of white and white satin lace.

The bride, who is a talented musician and elocutionist will be much missed by her many friends in Parrsboro. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, including a silver card tray, accompanied by an address, from the choir of St. James' church, of which she was the efficient organist. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls and a diamond and platinum necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch with pearl and diamonds.

TELLS OF BATTLE IN NORTH SEA

Saw One U-Boat Torpedoed—Airplanes and Patrol Vessels in Fight.

A vivid tale of an exciting battle between eleven British and four German submarines off the Irish coast, during which the liner Devonian and another steamer of a fleet the British warship was conveying was sunk, was told to-day at the State Employment Agency on Chapel street by Cecil Troutman, a survivor of the Devonian. Troutman was adrift for nearly four hours before he was picked up by a patrol boat.

"We left Liverpool," he said, "early in the morning a group of fifteen vessels, to be conveyed through the danger zone by eleven British submarines going along the surface. About 38 miles off the Irish coast four submarines of the U-boat type were seen in the distance.

"We immediately received orders to put on speed and make the greatest headway we could, sailing in pairs, six of the English submarines submerged until they were half awash, while the remainder threw a cordon around the merchant ships.

"It took just ten shakes of a lamb's tail before the crews were at the guns on the underwater boats' docks, and then things began to happen. You could fairly hear the shells scream as they whizzed through the air and dropped through the surface of the sea in the direction in which the submarines were first seen.

"Suddenly two periscopes well to our starboard and on a line almost with the ship, were seen following us. One was quite near, the other a little distance off. From one of the half submerged submarines a white streak shot out under the surface straight towards the U-boat. There was a dull explosion. The periscopes disappeared. She had gone down.

"Almost simultaneously a streak of white shot out from a place near where the other U-boat had been seen. Then another. Both travelled in our direction. The ship right in back of us was hit. She got it right amid-ship and sank in a few minutes. A second one after another torpedo struck our ship near the stern. Two men were immediately killed by the explosion, the ship carpenter and his assistant.

"I was on the promenade deck when the thing occurred. I was so fascinated by the spectacle that I hardly realized the danger. Far away I heard the hum of a mighty bee. The volume increased. Others were heard I looked about and up. Coming towards us at a mighty pace of speed were a number of airplanes. Over us they began to soar about like sea-gulls. swooping up and down, circling, criss-crossing and swerving, they dropped bombs that sank silently into the sea.

"Suddenly, as if by signal, they all flew towards one point. Slower was their speed. They were trailing a submarine. From down on the horizon came a number of submarine chasers. They trailed after the planes, some caught up—shot ahead of them in sprays of sea, and kept their positions there. They were waiting for the time when the submarine they were chasing should come up for air.

"It took less time than it takes to tell it. Our ship was rapidly sinking. Men were leaping overboard, others were frantically getting the life boats down. I decided that I would have a better chance if I got hold of a bit of some of the wreckage that littered the sea than in one of the crowded boats.

"I jumped overboard and got on a large floating box. I was on this nearly five hours. The other ships did not stop to pick us up, but, according to Admiralty orders kept on going.

SUBMARINE STORY TOLD IN HALIFAX

Officer Says More Than Five Ships were Sunk During Submarine Raid.

Halifax, N. S. Sept. 24.—The Herald here to-day says:

According to an officer of a merchant steamship in port the Virginia is one of the latest victims of the Hun's submarines on the Irish coast. The officer's story is somewhat in line with a story carried by the Canadian Press on Saturday, with the exception that the officer now at this port claims that more than five ships were sunk and that the Virginia, seriously crippled and in a sinking condition, managed to make the beach.

"It is impossible for me to say," he said, "whether any submarines were sunk or not, but I saw at least eight of the steamers go down. We were scattered over quite an area, and our ship had her own troubles in getting away. The destroyers were busy, however, and I am quite sure that some of them got what they were aiming at. With a heavy sea running and nothing but a periscope to aim at, it is a difficult matter to get in a killing blow at a submarine."

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY.

Old Gentleman—Boys, be careful you don't pick toadstools instead of mushrooms. They are very easily confused.

Spokesboy—Don't worry mister. We ain't going to eat 'em ourselves; we're goin' to sell 'em.
