

Lury Ann, Peter, Isaac, Sarah, Rebecca, George, Emerson, Albert, Harriet and Jane. Harriet Brown, Sr., died June 10, 1872, and Isaac Brown, Sr., died April 7, 1887; both buried in the Newkirk cemetery near Port Rowan.

Peter Brown, second son of Phoebe and Samuel Brown, born Aug. 15, 1810, married Rebecca Smith (born Feb. 4, 1813), by Rev. George Ryersie on Oct. 17, 1832. They settled in Walsingham, near Port Rowan; had no children. Rebecca Brown died June 11, 1902, and Peter Brown died June 1, 1904; both buried in Newkirk cemetery, Port Rowan.

Emily Brown, second and youngest daughter of Phoebe and Samuel Brown, born Jan 26, 1814, married Edward Bowen. They settled in Burford Township, Brant County, and had one son and two daughters: Phoebe, Edward and Emily. Emily Bowen, Sr., died July 25, 1835, and Edward Bowen, Sr., died Aug. 26, 1847; both buried in Burford cemetery.

Gathered from family bibles, tombstones, and public records and compiled by Enoch B. Brown.

