TROTTING AT LIVERPOOL.

At the Liverpool Annual Grand International Trotting Meeting, held on the 7th ult., the Local Trotting Stakes, heats of 2 1/2 miles, best 3 in 5, was won by Mr. Jenkinson's bay horse Tom (15 hands) in four heats. Time, 6:30, 6:30, 6:48, 6:37; eight starters. The Sefton International Trotting Stakes, heats of 2 1/2 miles, best 3 in 5, was won by Mr. Rook's gr m Steel Grey (14 hands) in four heats. Time, 6:14, 6:11, 6:14, 6:07; five starters. On the following day the Grand International Trotting Stakes of 100 sovereigns, heats of 2 1/2 miles, best 3 in 5, was won by Mr. Webbin's gray horse, Salvini (15 hands) in five heats. Time, 6:19, 6:06, 6:08, 6:18, 6:13; sixteen starters. The concluding race for the Aintree Stakes, a dash of 2 1/2 miles, was won by Mr. Birchell's b m Tolly Pork (15 hands) in 6:24; six starters.

The English appear to be breeding and training their trotting stock for much longer distances than the Americans, races of five and ten miles being not at all uncommon; the result of which, in the course of time, will be that the former will excel the latter in the quality of their trotting stock. The Turf, Field and Farm has always advocated the introduction of two and three-mile heat races at all our principal trotting meetings. They would present an interesting feature in the regular programme, and also necessitate the breeding and training of trotting stock that would possess more stamina and endurance than the trotters of the present day. Out of the hundreds of fast trotters now on the American turf, it is safe to say not more than twenty at the outside are good for more than a mile at a rapid rate of speed, while in England, where such races are comparatively new, large fields of undersized horses trot four and five heats of 2 1/2 miles each, at a rate of speed averaging from 2:40 to 2:50 to the mile, and retain their speed to the finish. As will be seen from above, a fifth heat of 2 1/2 miles was recently trotted in Liverpool in 6:18, the sixteen horses entered having at the conclusion of the race trotted 11 1/2 miles each. These facts mean something and they are worth considering. "From the rattle Dancer we pluck the flower safety."—Turf.

TAYLOR REPLIES TO McDONALD.

DEAR SIR—In a recent issue of The Clipper I noticed a communication, signed by Charles McDonald, relative to the little set to me and I had at Toronto, Ont., some weeks ago. Now, the facts of the case are simply these: Three days before we came on the stage Mr. McDonald came to me and said that, while he was willing to put on the gloves with me, he did not want to be made a fool of. I told him he need have no fear; that I would make it an even thing with the termination of my engagement with Mr. Mace: I will pay his expenses to New York City, and give him $100 if he will spar me there. The money to be placed in any responsible man's hands he may mention; and to be given up to him when the contest is ended. In addition to the $100, I will give him the advantage of fifteen blows to show his skill. If he don't accept this, I shall take no further notice of his braggadocio. Yours resp'y. STEVE TAYLOR.

LONDON vs. TORONTO.

The third championship game between the above clubs was played on the Cricket Ground here on Saturday last. The fielding of the Torontos was very poor, especially in the fifth innings, when the Tecumsehs made 3 runs where they should have been easily whitewashed. Mr. Lapham made a fine umpire.

CANADIAN HORSES AT SARATOGA.

At Saratoga on the 21st ult., the first race was a dash of three-quarters of a mile, and put in an appearance. The following is a full report:—

AEROLITE

THE BETTING.

Freebooter	$115	185	180	100	105
Mattie A.	100	185	180	100	100
Aerolite
Kenwood
May D.	30	15	40	30	25
Field	15	14	12	10	10

THE RACE.—Freebooter was first away, Mattie A. second, May D. third, Kenwood fourth and Aerolite fifth. The horses ran up the fractional track very rapidly, and when they passed out off on to the regular track Freebooter showed the way around the lower turn by a head only, and when he reached the three-quarter pole he had very little more than that advantage of May D.; the latter was two lengths in advance of Mattie A., who seemed to have none of her usual speed and was falling further behind the further she had to run; Aerolite was fourth, Kenwood out of the race; Freebooter gained gallantly up the homestretch and won by a length, May D. second, six lengths ahead of Mattie A., the latter one length in advance of Aerolite and Kenwood far behind. Time, 1:17.

The same day, in a dash of a mile and a half, ran an exceedingly fine race, lapping the winner, and beating some of the best horses in the States. The full report follows:—

INSPIRATION

THE BETTING.

Burgoo	$220	74	110	95	120
Rhadamanthus	205	110	105	80	90
Madge	150	75	70	55	65
Victor	250	100	150	100	90
Inspiration	140	40	60	30	40
Galway	80	30	36	25	30
Gray Friar	175	40	50	40	35
Invoice	110	30	40	25	35

THE RACE.—Burgoo had a trifle the best of a very fair start; Madge second, Inspiration third, Rhadamanthus fourth, Galway fifth, Invoice sixth, Victor seventh. Burgoo and Madge quickly drew away from the others and led two lengths around the lower turn. When the horses passed the three-quarter pole Burgoo was leading by a neck, Madge second, Victor third, Rhadamanthus fourth, Inspiration fifth, Invoice sixth, Galway seventh. The horses ran vigorously up the homestretch, and as they passed the judges' stand Burgoo was leading half a length, Madge second, Rhadamanthus third, Victor fourth, Inspiration fifth, Invoice sixth, Galway seventh. There was very little daylight between any of the horses at this time. Going around the upper turn no changes took place in the position of the horses, and they
