PIPANS

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

NO MATTER WHAT'S THE MATTER ONE OF THEM WILL DO YOU GOOD.

Rev. Frederick R. Marvin, long-time pastor of the First Congregational Church, of Great Barrington, Mass., and at one time a practicing physician, a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, says of Ripans Tablets: "The formula has long been in favor with medical men, and the method of preparation in the present form is modern and a great convenience. I always keep a vial of the Tablets upon my dressing table, and use them with confidence whenever occasion arises. For a disturbed condition of the digestive organs I know of nothing so good, and for an 'all round' family remedy I do not believe there is anything better to be had."

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Before beginning to wash your windows, go over them thoroughly with a brush made of stiff turkey feathers, to get off all the loose dust. Be sure that the corners are clean. Put a little ammonia into warm water, wash them with a white cloth, wipe with one free from lint, and polish with newspaper or soft tea paper.

Blueberry Short Cake.—Cream one-quarter of a cup of butter with one cup of sugar, add a pinch of salt, one cup of sweet milk, a pint of flour and a heaping tablespoonful of baking powder. Stir in one pint of berries, and if the batter is not thick like a pancake batter after the berries are put in, add a little more flour. Bake the cake in a biscuit tin. It should be served hot, cut into squares and eaten with butter.

To spice crab-apples.—Select good-sized apples; wash and core, but do not peel them. Weigh the apples and put them in a preserving kettle. To five pounds of fruit add four pounds of sugar and one pint of vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of whole cloves, the same of stick cinnamon, broken into pieces, and three or four pepper-corns. It is better to tie the spices in a muslin bag. Place the kettle over a moderate fire and let the contents cook slowly until tender.

Small apples that cannot be used for anything else may be made into delicious pickles. Peel the apples and core them; if the apples are of good size cut them into halves. Weigh the fruit, and for eight pounds of apples use two pounds of brown sugar, one quart of vinegar, one ounce of stick cinnamon, and half an ounce of whole cloves. Put the sugar, vinegar and spices in a preserving kettle and place it over the fire. When the vinegar is boiling put in the prepared fruit and cook until tender. Skim the apples out and put them in a large jar. Boil the syrup until it is reduced one-half or is as thick as desired, and pour over the cored fruit.

Occasionally your pet canary bird should be fed with a hard-boiled egg, chopped fine and mixed with cracker crumbs, giving it not more than a thimbleful of the mixture at a time.

For pickled red cabbage: Cut the cabbage into shreds and put it into a small stone crock. Season some vinegar with mace, cloves, peppercorns, salt and just enough sugar to take the edge off the vinegar. Heat the vinegar to boiling, but pour over the cabbage when it has become cold. Cover, and do not use for a month.

Apple sauce is a simple dish, yet is often an appetizing accompaniment to either a plain or an elaborate meal. The fruit is best to be tart, pared and prepared with great neatness and care, no speck allowed, cooked briskly in a saucepan, stirred often, till perfectly smooth and done, then sugar to the taste added, a pinch of salt, a bit of butter, stirred more and at once pour from the dish in which it was cooked. It takes but a few moments to make a good apple sauce.

To pickle onions: Peel small onions and boil them in equal parts of milk and water for ten minutes. Put one gallon of vinegar in a preserving kettle with half an ounce of whole mace, the same amount of alum, one-quarter of an ounce of whole cloves and five tablespoonfuls of salt. Place the kettle over the fire and let the contents come to the boiling point. Drain the onions in a colander and put them into jars, turn the boiling vinegar over the onions, cover the jars and put away.
