DAYS.

What is the message of days, what is the thought they bring—Days that darken to winter, days that sweeten to spring?

Is there a lore to learn, is there a truth to be told?

Hath the new dawn a ray that never flushed from the old?

Day that deepens to night, night that broadens to day,

What is the meaning of all, what is the word they say?

— Silence for aye and aye, and the heart-beats never cease.

Till toil and life and the day are the night and death and peace.

— JOHN HALL INGHAM, IN OCTOBER, Scribner.

LITERARY NOTES.

There has been a very interesting discussion caused of late by a serial article being published in Harper's Young People. The article referred to is called "A Trip Around Cape Horn in '49," and it tells anecdotes of the journey of an actual ship called the Gray Eagle around the Horn. The discussion is caused by letters from several persons who made the trip in the Gray Eagle, and they have all furnished many additional anecdotes of the voyage.
The fourth instalment of the account is in the present issue of the Young People.

The Viceroy's special grievance was opium. This was the curse of China.
It was debasing her best people into a condition worse than slavery. It had been forced upon them so that out of its revenues England might govern India. Here was a drug—a Government monopoly in India—sold at an incredible profit, and yielding India an annual income of several millions of rupees. From Character Sketch of Li Hung Chang, by John Russell Young, October Review of Reviews.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

A MEDICINE

WITHOUT AN EQUAL.

Statement of a Well Known Doctor

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is without an equal as a blood-purifier and Spring medicine, and cannot have praise enough. I have watched its effects in chronic cases, where other treatment was of no avail, and have been astonished at the results. No other blood medicine that I have ever used, and I have tried them all, is so thorough in its action, and effects so many permanent cures as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Dr. H. F. MERRILL, Augusta, Me.
