

utes a paper "Curing Stuttering," it being the results and experience obtained by the treatment of 150 cases. Mr. C. W. Sykes, of Buffalo, N. Y., discusses "Singing"—some of the defects of various prominent teachers and the need of correct instruction. A humorous account is given of the troubles of a young man with an impediment of speech. The careful consideration of the medical profession is asked for the chapter from Klencke, who says that all the stutterers he has met were tainted more or less with scrofula.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

James Grant, former editor of the London Morning Advertiser, is dead, aged 74.

The daily circulation of the most popular newspaper in the City of Mexico, with a population of 200,000, does not exceed 2,000 copies. All the newspapers in the republic aggregate a consumption of only about 800 reams a month.

Mr. J. P. Palmer, who represents Messrs. Millar & Richard, Type Founders, of Edinburgh, at Toronto, Ont., favored us with a friendly call on the 15th August. This was his first visit to St. John, if not to the Maritime Provinces, and we were extremely gratified at having an opportunity of becoming personally acquainted with one of whom we had so often heard, and who has evidently grown gray in the service of the craft.

We have received a circular from Mr. Andrew Campbell, of New York, stating that he has severed his connection with the "Campbell Printing Press and Manufacturing Company," with whom he had for many years been prominently identified, and introducing the new firm of "A. Campbell's Sons & Co." This firm will be privileged to use all the past and future patents and improvements of the senior member of the firm. Address, 19 Beekman street, New York.

Rumors are rife concerning the printing business in St. John. It is needless to say that it is very unlikely that any new departure of much moment will take place for some time to come. The depressing influence of dull times is still too strongly felt, and the "better time coming" has hardly developed itself sufficiently to warrant the undertaking of new responsibilities. Business men generally have become very cautious, and will scrutinize closely the business aspect of any new venture in the printing line.

NEWS OF THE CRAFT.

DOMINION.

The Wyoming, Ont., Globe has published its valedictory.

James Bryan, of the Lucknow Sentinel, has married Mrs. Boyd, the proprietress of that paper.

L. Carroll, formerly the editor of the Guelph Herald, has, we understand, severed his connection with that paper.

Thomas Rossignol, for some years pressman on the Daily Telegraph, St. John, N. B., left for Boston on the 25th August.

P. G. Laurie, of the Saskatchewan Herald, Battleford, N. W. T., has been appointed Printer to the Government of the North-West Territories.

J. G. Lorimer, of the Bay Pilot, St. Andrews, N. B., has been appointed postmaster of Grand Manan, N. B., and has disposed of his interest in the paper.

Messrs. Belford, Clarke & Co., Toronto, who furnish the Fortnightly Review from English plates, have now taken steps to supply London Society in the same way.

Mr. W. B. Alley, of the Colchester Sun, Truro, N. S., recently met with an accident by falling from his wagon and received some severe contusions on the head. His numerous friends will be glad to learn that his injuries were not of a very serious nature.

James Stevenson, a printer, of Toronto, committed suicide by hanging on the 20th August. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and four children and was about thirty-five years of age. He had been out of work for some time and during the last few days had given himself up to drinking.

J. P. Bowes and his brother, F. W. Bowes, have bought the plant of The Borderer, of Sackville, N. B., and will continue that publication under the new title of The Transcript. Arrangements have been made to add many improvements to the plant, among which will be a power press. We heartily wish them success in their undertaking, and we have no doubt they will succeed, for they are both practical printers. Mr. J. P. Bowes has been subbing on the Daily Telegraph for some time, and his quiet, unobtrusive manner, as well as his many other good qualities, have gained for him the good-will and
