OUR ANNIVERSARY.

THE Twenty-first Annual Anniversary will be held on Tuesday evening, 10th inst., in Shaftesbury Hall. Addresses will be made by the President, S. H. Blake, Esq., Rev. E. A. Stafford, Ferdinand Schiverea, Brooklyn, and others. Mr. H. C. Dixon's choir of 60 voices will also be present, and render several pieces of sacred music. A cordial invitation is extended to the young men of the city. Let each one of our members try to be present, and bring others with them.

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE Annual Business Meeting for the reception of reports and the election of officers for the ensuing year was held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13th. In the absence of the President through indisposition, Mr. S. Caldecott presided. The various reports read, with one exception, were most encouraging, and showed that faithful and earnest work had been rendered by the committees. The report on membership showed a painful condition of things, and reveals the fact that something has been, and is wrong. Let each member in the com-
