

I. Exterior View of the Victoria Hall.—2. External Door of the Hall.—3. The Portion of the Staircase Where the Disaster Occurred, Showing the Partly Open Door Which Caused the Accident (The Dotted Line Shows the Height to Which the Children's Bodies Were Heaped Behind the Door and on the Staircase).—4. Another View of the Scene of the Disaster, Showing the Short Flight of Sixteen Steps Leading to the Fatal Door.

THE INTERIOR OF THE VICTORIA HALL

THE TERRIBLE DISASTER AT SUNDERLAND.