

BARBER'S INSTANTANEOUS RHEUMATIC CURE.

This wonderful remedy is composed of powerful, yet harmless drugs, which readily assimilate with the blood, and absorb and carry off through the pores of the skin the Lactic or Uric acid, and all other poisonous matter found therein, thereby removing the cause of Gout, Neuralgia and all forms of Rheumatism. Wherever it has been introduced, the demand for it has constantly increased. Through personal benefits derived from its use, we have been the means of introducing it in Canada, and it is now manufactured for us, as General Agents, here in Sherbrooke. We have sold a large quantity of the Cure in this part of the Eastern Townships, and only know of two persons whom it has failed to benefit, after using it according to directions. We confidently recommend it to those afflicted with Rheumatism in any form; Not because "there is money in it," but from our personal experience of its use and benefit. It is this which has induced us to take up a new line of business, and it wouldn't pay us to recommend a worthless article. We confidently believe that Barber's Instantaneous Rheumatic Cure will do all that is claimed for it. While we are not sanguine enough to believe that it will cure every individual case of Rheumatism, some of which may be a complication of diseases, we are in a position to prove that out of one thousand cases taken indiscriminately, over ninety-four per cent. were relieved by the use of this Cure. Try it, use it, in strict accordance with the directions which accompany each bottle. Price $1 per bottle. Agents wanted, and the trade supplied throughout the United States and Canada. LADIES'
Long Pocketbooks
A BEAUTIFUL FASHIONABLE POCKET-
BOOK FOR TWENTY CENTS.

The latest fashionable style of Ladies' Pocket-books is to have them long and narrow. The books we are selling are exactly the same in shape and style as the most expensive books, selling from $1.50 to $5 each. They are an exact imitation of the very expensive Alligator skin, having a nice finish, lined in fine dark shades, and containing four large pockets and trimmed in the most artistic manner, the mountains being of metal, an exact imitation of the fashionable oxidized silver, and worked in the ornamental antique patterns so popular now-a-days. The clasp is of solid metal, a patent combination that shuts tightly by means of a stout spring. These are the safest and handsomest pocketbooks ladies can carry. —THE—
Magic Stamp Holder.

ENTIRELY NEW, USEFUL AND CHEAP.

OPEN.

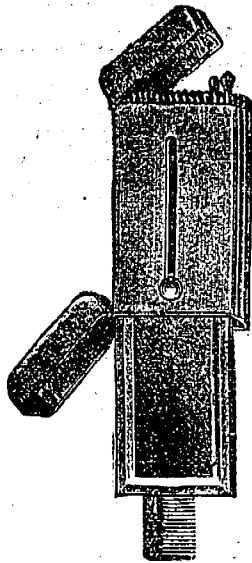

CLOSED.

The gelatinous mucilage on the back of postage stamps speedily becomes sticky and adhesive from the warmth of the body. When carried in vest or pants pockets, the stamps stick together, or get soiled, crumpled or torn, and are thus a dead loss to the owner. Being so small, they are the most easily lost of anything in the pockets. All these losses and annoyances can be prevented by keeping your stamps in the Magic Holder. It can be carried in the smallest fob pocket, yet will hold 25 or more stamps, neatly laid in a pile.

The holder is shut by a spring catch; when wanting a stamp, just pull the catch with the finger nail, instantly the holder shoots forth. In its bottom is a circular hole through which your finger pushes the pile of stamps up, and after taking the number needed, the holder is pressed back and locks. PRICE 15 cents, by mail postpaid.

PATENT COMBINATION
Match Box, Mirror, Comb

What he has now distributed through his pants, coat and vests, can be snugly fitted in the vest pocket. The Combination Box will carry his matches in one end, while the other end has a full-sized pocket extension mirror, a postage stamp holder, and a rubber comb in case. The box and all its parts are heavily nicel-plated.

The usefulness of this combination will be apparent to all, and will be found as durable as it is convenient and handsome. PRICE complete 30 cents, sent by mail postpaid.

Can be applied to any Sewing Machine in two or three minutes, and saves one half the labor of working the treadle. It also causes the Machine to run evenly, saving many times its cost in wear. It has been conclusively established that much of the disease prevalent among females is due to the double action of the foot, required in running the ordinary machine. This is obviated by using the Relief Spring. Every man who has an attachment for his wife, should provide her with a SPRING ATTACHMENT and enable her to run the Machine "with pleasure and profit." 50 cents will cement the ATTACHMENT. Agents wanted, to whom the most liberal terms will be given. An active, energetic man can make $2 to $5 per day, according to locality, as no SEWING MACHINE OPERATOR can afford to do without them. Sent by mail postpaid, on receipt of price, with instructions by which any person of intelligence can attach them to the Machine.

SHERBROOKE, QUE.

Mr. I. J. E. Doe, of Moe's River, Que., who was one of the first to whom we supplied Barber's Instantaneous Rheumatic Cure, says although he has never used it according to directions, it always relieves him when he feels a touch of rheumatism by simply taking a dose or two, and that he has in the same way cured or relieved several of his friends and acquaintances. Mr. Walter Hanover, 116, Broadway, Fall River, Mass., can testify to the benefits derived from the use of this Rheumatic Cure amongst his personal friends and acquaintances. Price $1 per bottle.

Mr. Joseph Andrews, of Windsor Mills Que., says that the use of OXIAN makes him feel ten years younger, and that he can walk off as if relieved of a heavy load.

Parker W. Nagle, Esq., J. P., of Rock Forest, Que., Crown Forest Ranger, says that less than a bottle of Barber's Instantaneous Rheumatic Cure, completely cured his son who had been confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism and rheumatic fever, for several weeks at a time during three successive winters. Timothy Leet, Esq., of Danville, Que., Clerk of the Circuit Court, and Serg't Shaw, also of Danville, a member of the Wimbledon team, both testify to the benefits derived by them personally from the use of Barber's Instantaneous Rheumatic Cure.

Although it is only a few days since we introduced Dr. Ordway's improved Plasters here, we have been advised of most satisfactory results by those who have used them, and are now prepared to fill orders from all parts of Canada and the U. S. Samples by mail 25 cents.

Mr. Green, of this city, says he has always been opposed to the use of patent or proprietary remedies, but that since using OXIAN, the great Nerve Food, he sleeps well, has a good appetite, feels invigorated, and is better in every way. By mail, 40 cents per box.
