

BIRTHS.

At the Rectory, Port Burwell, on the 27th September, the lady of the Rev. T. B. Read, of a son.

MARRIED.

On the 7th instant, at St. George's Church, Grafton, by the Rev. J. Wilson, James Bird, Esq., of the Town of Peterboro, to Agnes Sarah, youngest daughter of Colonel Caddy, late of the Royal Artillery.

At Christ Church, Port Stanley, on Monday the 14th instant, by the Rev. G. C. Street, Washington Boulbee, Esq., of Thornvale, near Ancaster, to Eliza Sophia, eldest daughter of Charles Bourne, Esq., of Nanticoke, County of Norfolk.

On Wednesday, October 16, 1850, at St. George's Church, Georgina, by the Rev. J. Gibson, William Bourchier, Esquire, to Emily Amanda, only surviving daughter of Charles T. Sikes, Esquire, of Gloucester, England.

DIED.

On the 2nd inst., at the residence of his son Clements Bradley, Esq., Gloucester, Colonel William B. Bradley, of March, aged 78.

The deceased commenced his military services as Ensign in the New Brunswick Regiment on the 6th October, 1793. The Regiment being disbanded in August, 1802, he was placed upon half-pay; he was again commissioned in Nova Scotia Regiment in August, 1803, in which he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in July, 1805, and to the rank of Captain in the same regiment, 16th April, 1812, and in the Winter of 1813 he with the last named Regiment marched on snow-shoes from St. John's, New Brunswick, to re-inforce the army in Canada, who were threatened by the American Army with invasion, by an overwhelming force. This march through the forest by a whole regiment, in the midst of a very severe Canadian winter, has no precedent, and the attempt was only afterwards made by the 8th or King's Own, and a party of sailors, who suffered most severely. The deceased's regiment took an active part with the handful of British troops at the time in the country to repel invasion by an overwhelming army. He was present at the attack on Sacketts Harbour, and at the surrender of Col. Butler at the Beaver Dams, now the Township of Thorold; previous to which, he, with his party, captured two six-pounder guns; and was present at several skirmishes which it is well known took place with a mere handful of British in many instances against ten times their number.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

[From the Watch Tower, Newburyport, Mass.] Anything that will cure colds, which are so very prevalent at the present time, must be considered invaluable. The only medicine (of which we have any knowledge), which is sure to remove lung complaints, is Wistar's Balsam, of which Seth Fowle, of Boston, is agent. We have repeatedly seen the good effects of this Balsam, and are satisfied that it is no humbug. The genuine is signed I. BUTTS. For Sale by ROBT. LOVE, and LYMAN & KNEESHAW Drugists, King Street, only Agents for Toronto.

ALTHOUGH this Society has mainly in view the intention of enabling members of the Church of England to contribute, by the payment of small periodical sums, towards either the endowment of a Church of England University, (in accordance with the recommendation of His Lordship the Bishop in his recent Pastoral Letter,) or the building and endowment of Churches, Parsonage Houses, and School Houses, in connexion with the Church of England—the Society, nevertheless does not contemplate restricting its operations to those objects only. On the contrary, like other Building Societies, the advantages of the Church of England and Metropolitan Building Society will be fully open to all parties, without distinction, who may choose to take Stock therein, either for investment—the acquisition of freehold or leasehold estate—the removal of incumbrances or liabilities upon property—or the privilege of borrowing the amount of their shares in advance, upon furnishing approved mortgage security.

Printed copies of the By-Laws and Regulations can be obtained from the undersigned, at the Offices of the Society, Albany Chambers; and it is requested that all Communications be post paid.
