

words. His Honour on rising said Mr. Forget had somewhat taken him by surprise by asking him to speak, but said it gave Madame Royal and himself great pleasure to be there to-night and also to see so many people present. He said he was not a crack shot himself, but Madame Royal had done their share of shooting by making a bull's eye. He heartily agreed with what Mr. Forget had said as to the Territories combining and inaugurating a meeting after the style of the Bisley meeting and he thought there could be no more fitting place than the capital, Regina. He said he was pleased to see gentlemen from Moosomin present and hoped that they would return in greater numbers next year. He thought the Association had a great future before it and hoped next year to see riflemen from Calgary and all parts of the N.W.T. competing for the prizes.
