and 736 Craig St., Montreal.Mercantile Summary.

Mr. WM. CONNOR, grocer, London, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities will not amount to more than $1,500, it is said.

At Amherst, N.S., on Saturday last, Judge Morse sentenced John Wells to nine years in Dorchester penitentiary, and his brother Ephraim to two years, for cattle stealing.

Mr. JOHN SANDERS, of Kemptville, Ont., was last week appointed by the Government to go to Great Britain and enquire into the possibilities of the poultry and egg trade with that country.

A CABLE message has been received—the London Free Press has it that Mr. Thos. Goffatt of Orillia received it—denying the report that Hugh Sutherland, president of the Hudson Bay Railroad, has failed to float the bonds of the railway in London.

On Wednesday, 15th, a meeting of the creditors of Latham & Lowe, overall manufacturers in this city, was held. The statement then submitted to creditors showed total liabilities amounting to $54,106 and assets of about $32,000. The estate was placed in charge of E. R. C. Clarkson.

The office of the Bank of Hamilton at Georgetown is being removed to new premises. The building is a stone structure situated in the centre of the town, and is being fitted up in a style which will be a great improvement on the old offices. The manager is Mr. H. P. Watson.
