L'AMBASCIATORE D'ITALIA

Ottawa, March 18, 1949

Sir:

Under directions from Count Sforza, I have the honour to convey to you - and through your kind intermediary - to the Right Honourable the Prime Minister and to the Canadian Government, the feelings of deep appreciation of my Government for the friendly attitude taken by Canada towards Italy's adhesion to the Atlantic Pact.

In fulfilling my instructions, I would like to stress how much the Italian Nation senses that the new historic Treaty, which binds together also our two Countries in the common work of fostering peace, security and cooperation throughout the Western World, will afford also a unique opportunity for strengthening more and more the ties of friendship between Italy and Canada.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

(Signed) M. di Stefano

The Honourable L. B. Pearson,
Secretary of State for External Affairs,
Ottawa.
