DEATH OF CANADIAN JOURNALIST IN LEBANON

The Honourable Allan J. MacEachen, Deputy Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs, issued the following statement today on learning of the death of the CTV London Bureau Chief Clark Todd:

"I wish to express my deep regret at the death of Clark Todd and to extend my condolences to his family, friends and colleagues. Mr. Todd died while attempting to provide front line coverage of the tragic civil strife now raging in the Lebanon. We will remember his brave attempt to provide Canadians with an insight into this tragic situation."
