VISIT OF THE BRITISH FOREIGN AND COMMONWEALTH SECRETARY
SEPTEMBER 7-8, 1987

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, announced today that the British Foreign and Commonwealth Secretary, the Right Honourable Sir Geoffrey Howe, will undertake a brief working visit to Canada September 7-8.

The visit will provide both ministers with an opportunity to meet after the Francophone Summit and as a prelude to the Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting.

The two ministers meet regularly to hold discussions on bilateral and international issues of mutual interest. Mr. Clark was in London last January and Sir Geoffrey Howe visited Ottawa in September 1985.
