

tenant Stephen Cassin, in such manner as may be most honorable to them; and that the president be further requested to present a silver medal, with suitable emblems and devices, to each of the commissioned officers of the navy and army serving on board; and a sword to each of the midshipmen and sailing masters, who so nobly distinguished themselves in that memorable conflict.

Resolved, That the president of the United States be requested to present a silver medal, with like emblems and devices, to the nearest male relative of lieutenant Peter Gamble, and of lieutenant John Stansbury, and to communicate to them the deep regret which congress feel for the loss of those gallant men, whose names ought to live in the recollection and affection of a grateful country.

Resolved, That                      months' pay be allowed, exclusively of the common allowance, to all the petty officers, seamen, marines, and infantry serving as marines, who so gloriously supported the honor of the American flag on that memorable day.
