foners from St. John's Fort, and others penetrated into the back country, the better to learn the nature and fituation of it.

Thus were we employed till the 12th of September, when the General, exasperated at the treatment which Capt. Kennedy had met with, who had been sent with a party as a slag of truce to the St. Francis Indians, with proposals of peace to them, and was by them made a prisoner with his whole party; this ungenerous inhumane treatement determined the General to chastize these savages with some severity, and, in order to it, I received from him the following orders, viz.

* "You are this night to fet out with the detachment as ordered yesterday, viz. of 200 men, which you will take under your command, and proceed to Missiquey Bay, from whence you will march and attack the enemy's settlements on the south-side of the river St. Lawrence, in such a manner as you shall judge most effectual to disgrace the enemy, and for

^{*} That this expedition might be carried on with the utmost secrety after the plan of it was concerted the day before my march, it was put into public orders, that I was to march a different way, at the same time I had private instructions to proceed directly to St. Francis.
