

It is said that a pulp mill will be erected at Victoriaville, Que., by Hon. R. R. Dobell, of Quebec, and Mr. Panneton, of Three Rivers. They ask a bonus of $25,000 from the town after they have spent $250,000 upon the undertaking.

In his annual report, Secretary Barrett, of the Minnesota Forestry Association, says: "Pulp men concede that no other substance, as yet discovered, is equal to spruce as a basic fibre for white paper. Their pulp and paper mills consume fully 65 per cent. of all the spruce trees in the United States. Standing spruce in Minnesota is officially reported at 1,050,000,000 feet. It is questionable whether our cut for pulp and other purposes is proportional to that of some States in the east, where the manufacture is more concentrated. To avert a pending famine of the raw material, different companies are buying up large tracts of cut-over and abandoned lands to raise spruces from seeds and seedlings."
