A serious accident occurred recently to Mr. H. H. Cook, president of the Ontario Lumber Company, of Toronto. A street car from which he was alighting started somewhat prematurely, with the result that Mr. Cook was precipitated to the pavement, breaking his left leg above the ankle and receiving a serious shock to his system. For some time he remained unconscious, but by the aid of skillful medical attendance we are pleased to learn that he is now rapidly regaining convalescence.

Under the name of Donald McNicol at Lammemoor, Ont., is conducted a saw mill industry that has quite a unique history. The father of the present owner established his plant on the Little Clyde in 1825, but since that time the mill has been rebuilt twice, at each rebuilding improvements being made.
