

To begin such work as this is hard ; to continue it, comparatively easy. To continue it, we need the varied experiences of our fruit-growers continually brought before the public in our newspapers, and especially in regard to points in which the experience of individuals differs from this report,—for, being a digest of opinions, it must, in some points, materially differ from the actual experience of every one who reads it.

As a Local Association, we have done our duty, and hope that all interested will do all they possibly can to continue the work which we, from the very necessity of the case, have made this effort to begin.
