BOTH SIDES PROFESS TO BE PLEASED WITH THE RESULT OF THE FIRST DAY'S POLLING

facturing Districts of the

POLLING IN SIXTY-SEVEN CONSTITUENCIES TO-DAY

LONDON, Dec. 4.—(Associated Press.)— Although the pollings in the general election Saturday indicate that the next parliament will be similar in complexion to that of the dissolved house, and both sides late to-night professed to be pleased with the result of the first day's contests, a careful analysis of the figures in the political clubs appeared to give greatest satisfaction to the Liberals, who declare themselves more than contented. They point out the fact that every Unionist majority in Birmingham was reduced, and that the Liberals improved their position in Wolverhampton and other Midland districts devoted to manufacturing interests, and under Chamberlain influence.

London again proved disappointing to the Unionists, and encouraging to the Liberals, who had not expected to regain Peckham. The London boroughs, like Birmingham, also show increased majorities for the Liberals, who believe their successes in Manchester and London will greatly influence the coming contest in the significant victories.

Result of the First Day's Polling

LIBERAL GAINS.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES.
The outstanding features of the election were the defeat of A. Bonar Law, a Canadian, the chief exponent of tariff reform in N. W. Manchester; the capture of Great Grimsby for the Unionists by Sir George Doughty, and the failure of Hon. Rupert Guinness to win over Haggerston to Unionism.

The Canadians elected are: Dr. T. J. MacNamara (L.), Sir Gilbert Parker (C.) and W. M. Aitken (U.).
Right Hon. Augustin Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, and Right Hon. C. E. Hobhouse, financial secretary to the treasury, were among those elected Saturday.

DEFEAT FOR FREE TRADE IS LANCASHIRE VOTING

LANCASHIRE, Dec. 4.—(Special.)— Lancashire is beginning to shake off its Cobdenite traditions. That is a fair conclusion from the results of to-day's elections. Four free trade seats in the home of the British cotton trade, Aston, South Salford, Warrington and Wigan, having been captured by the tariff reformers, while the Liberal majorities in most of the other Lancashire constituencies in which a battle was fought to-day have been reduced.

On the other hand, Southwest Manchester, which was at the special request of Mr. Balfour that he save up a safe seat in London to attack the Liberal stronghold.

North Manchester again returns free traders from all six divisions, but the Conservative vote has increased in the last election as the result of a split in the Liberal vote, has returned free traders and the Unionists are bitterly disappointed at the failure of Bonar Law to win the Northwest Manchester district from Sir George Kemp. Mr.

Law is admittedly one of the ablest exponents of the policy of tariff reform in this country and it was at the special

REFERENDUM IS WEAKNESS TO UNIONISTS

Significant Admission by Organ of the Tariff Reformers—Can Only Defeat "Lloyd-Georgeism" With Union of Free Traders and Tariff Reformers, Says Graphic.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—As might be expected, the editorials in the party organs of both sides claim victory, but the Unionist newspapers betray disappointment over the results in London and Manchester, and while making much of the gains in Lancashire and elsewhere in the north, already virtually admit that the only hope now that the Liberal government will come back with a greatly reduced majority.

The Morning Post, the organ of the staunch tariff reformers, frankly blames Mr. Balfour. "In the face of Saturday's returns," says the Post, "it is indisputable that the referendum proposal weakened the Unionist cause."

The Daily Graphic declares that "Lloyd-Georgeism" can only be defeated by a combination of the free traders with the tariff reformers.
The Daily Telegraph says that the tide is not running with vehemence on either side, and "it looks as though we are already in the shadow of another general election."

Both Sides Have Regrets.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—(C.A.P. Cable.)— If the Liberals are disappointed the Conservatives are not altogether satisfied with yesterday's pollings. The latter did not expect to lose the celestial cities of Exeter and Rochester, and narrowly missed losing Gloucester, while the government's loss in Lancashire is not only compensated for by the defeat of Sir John Lubbock and the winning of Southwest Manchester. Still the opposition leaves the destruction of a number of the most important seats daily throughout the election will put well above the ministerial, with the exception of the Irish members, which will bring about the inevitable result of the referendum. The cable as "scarcely probable," and there will probably be another election in the New Year.

The Loss of Grimsby.
The loss of Grimsby also ranks in ministerial bread, but the successes in London are found very consolatory.
Taking the pollings as a whole, there is some decrease connected with the referendum.

Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy's Last Photo

End Comes Late Saturday, But Was Kept Secret Until the Close of the Service in Mother Church at Boston —Pneumonia the Cause, Physician Reports.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy has passed on in her 90th year. She was, in truth, a wonderful woman, the like of which the age has never seen before, the like of which the ages may never see again. At sixty, almost, if not quite, a pauper, scarcely known to the world, twenty miles from Boston; she departs a millionaire, perhaps two or three times over, with a name which has penetrated even to the lonely but of the Esquimaux.
Single-handed and alone, she defied the world and all the things that are of the world, and conquered like a Napoleon. The thunder of the church, of philosophy, of science, of humor, and even of common sense, was directed at her in vain.
Frouder than any man of the earth, prouder than the father of gods and men, this high priestess of the Christian Science cult, sat upon her ecclesiastical throne.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, the founder of Christian Science, is dead. Announcement of the passing of the aged lady, which occurred late last night at her home at Chestnut Hill, a suburb, was made at the morning service of the mother church in this city to-day.

"Natural causes," explains the death, according to George L. West, a district medical examiner, who was summoned a few hours after Mrs. Eddy passed away. Later Dr. West added to his statement by saying that the more immediate cause was probably pneumonia.

The news of Mrs. Eddy's death was made known simultaneously by Judge Clifford P. Smith, first reader of the mother church, at the close of the morning service, and by Alfred Farlow of the Christian Science Publication Committee, in a statement to the press.
According to Mr. Farlow, Mrs. Eddy passed away at her home before seven o'clock last night.

Incised for Nine Days.
"She had been indisposed for about nine days," said Mr. Farlow's statement, "and Mr. Farlow's statement and as late as Thursday transacted some business with one of the officials of the Christian Science Church. She took her daily morning drive until two days before her going. Saturday night she fell quietly asleep and those around her felt at first sorry realized that she had gone. Her thought was clear until the last and she left no final message."

"No physician was in attendance, but she had the assistance of the students who composed her household.
With her the last of her departure were Calvin A. Frye, Mrs. Laura E.
Sargent, Mrs. Ella S. Rathvon, Rev.
Irving S. Tomlinson, her corresponding secretary, William B. Rathvon, and her secretary, Adam H. Dickey.

Funeral Private.
"No arrangements regarding the time or the place of her burial have yet been decided upon. It is known, to her household that she believed in simplicity on such occasions, and in compliance with this knowledge it is expected that the service will be private. At the time of her departure she had a prayer and readings from the Bible, with some brief selections from the Christian Science text book.
Only her household, her household and the officials of the church are expected to be in attendance.

"A telegram was sent to her son, George W. Glover of Lead, S.D., appearing him of his mother's demise and requesting information as to his attendance and that of his family."
Mrs. Eddy was born in Bow, N.H.,

BOY FOUND IN THE LAKE

Probationer on Street Railway Ends
His Life.

John W. Ramsey, 228 Bellwoods-ave., discovered the body of a man floating in the lake close to the shore, at Sunnyside, at 11.40 a.m. yesterday. The police found that it was the body of John J. Dufferin-street for two days prior to Nov. 25, since when he had been missing. Only 5 cents was found in his pockets.

He had been employed by the Tor-er" conductor. Prior to going to the Dufferin-street address, he had rooms at 228 Earle-st. He came from England last June, being brought out by the Salvation Army. He was 35 years of age and single.

The Noted Scotch Author.

There are few men in the literary world who are held in such high re-

Scotch author, and it is said that Charles Frohman has paid him over half a million dollars in royalties for plays in which Maude Adams has been seen.
The best of these plays is "What Every Woman Knows," which will be the attraction to-night and for the remainder of the week at the Princess

BERLIN, Ont., Dec. 4.—(Special.)— had been ill since spring, and in Sep-he was appointed missionary apostolic,

He Was Arrested.

Wilfred Hussey was arrested at the Union Depot yesterday by Constable Reof clothing from a room-mate. Detective Cromie had located a trunk, or tin box, containing the property belonging to the room-mate, and had given instructions that when it was called for Reburn should be put under the trunk. Constable Reburn saw Hussey search the box and discovered a watch in it belonging to F. Egan of Bar-to identify the watch, which he declares was stolen some time ago.

A CHANCE TO DO GOOD.

Westminster Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, makes an appeal to the Toronto public on behalf of many of the patients at the Toronto Free Hospital for Con-sumptives, that was burned during the week. The patients have been left practically without clothing, some having to remain in bed on that account. The ladies of the chapter have all along been doing what they could for these unfortunates, but the fire has made the situation acute.
Contributions of clean, wholesome underclothing and other garments will be most acceptable, and, if possible, should be sent to the sanitation office, 27 West King street, or to Mrs. Ross, agent of the chapter, 36 Sunnyside-avenue, before 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Christmas Furs for the Family.

This crisp, wintry weather turns one's thoughts to what will be an appropriate gift for Christmas. Now is the time to make a selection, don't put it off until the day before the holiday.
Through a fortunate buy, early last summer, the Dineen Co. have an exceptionally large stock of furs on hand and are in a position to meet all the demands of the Christmas trade. This rare showing of furs comprises fur sets, fur novelties, jackets, stoles, ruffs, fur caps and fur-lined coats, made up in the latest designs. Every article is designed and finished in the Dineen work-rooms by expert designers and furriers. Only superior linings are used, and moderate prices prevail.
The Dineen guarantee of satisfaction accompanies every purchase, which means that you will be well pleased with whatever you may purchase at this reputable store.
