'As a matter of business a person should look around and study values closely before buying

We claim the best values—quality considered. Our close buying connections with the trappers, from whom we get native pelts, and with the distributing emporiums, for seal in London, and Persian lamb in Leipsic, are reasons why our garments should be made of select quality fur.

The success of our business is based on absolute satisfaction to all our customers. Never any, risk - no matter what you buy.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Oct. 20.
About £30 p.m. Saturday might, just at the busy hour, a man came into Carter's grocery store, at 210 West Dundas street, and bought a quantity of goods, in return for which he gave a cheque for $10 on the Bank of Hamilton. He ordered the goods to be sent to C. J. Richardson, 318 Pacific-avenue, but on going to the house the delivery man found that no one of that name resided there. It afterwards developed that three or four other grocers in the Junction: had been thru the same experience, with the result that enough groceries were brought to the address given to feed as small army.
