London, Dec. 9.—Another story of a ducal coffin filled with stones or lead being placed in a mansoleum to defeat the ends of justice has just been brought to light by a claim of a man in the Transvaal, calling himself Charles Gunn, that he is the real Duke of Hamilton, and should succeed to the title and estates of the present encumbent.

The case is similar to that of the Duke of Portland, whose right to the ownership of the title and estates is disputed by Mrs. Thomas Druce, on behalf of her son.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating palas. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather but have never been troubled with Rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others as it did so much for me,"
