A Gentleman.

A Gentleman.

I knew him for a gentleman
By signs that never fail;
His coat was rough and rather worn,
His cheeks were thin and pale—
A lad who had his wa yto make,
With little time for play;
I knew him for a gentleman
By certain signs to-day.

He met his mother on the street; Off came his little cap;
My door was shut; he waited there
Until I heard his rap;
He took the bundle from my hand,
And when I dropped my pen,
He sprang to pick it up for me—
This gentleman of ten.

He does not push and crowd along;

He thinks of you before himself;
He serves you if he can;
For in whatever company,
The manners make the man.
At ten, at forty, 'tis the same;
The manners tell the tale,
And I discern the gentieman
By signs that never fail.
