

REPORT OF
Crescent Street Church Auxiliary
 WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

PRESIDENT,	- - - - -	MISS WATSON.
SECRETARY,	- - - - -	MISS SAVAGE.
TREASURER,	- - - - -	MRS. MORTON.

The first regular meeting of this Auxiliary was held on Friday, October 2nd, 1891. Since then the meetings have been held regularly on the first Friday of the month.

The attendance, though not so large as it ought to have been, has been regular, and the work has gone on steadily.

The two branches of work which we have helped, are that of the trained nurse, among the poor and deserving in our midst; and Mission work in the North West.

The first is a much needed and now well established work in our city; it is a great help and assistance to our Presbyterian Ministers and christian workers; the latter is a great and necessitous field. At the outset we undertook to raise $400—$200 to be appropriated to city work, and $200 for the North West.

That for the city work has already been paid into the Treasurer of the Society. There are $140 on hand toward our obligation to the North West.

We have assisted in paying the salary of Mr. Rodgers at Nelson, B. C., from whom we have received letters. To show the needs of the North West, we quote from parts of a letter lately read at one of our meetings:

“To me this North West work is at once the most hopeful and the most hopeless part of our church work. The seed being sown on prairie and among the mountains, may bring harvests of untold wealth to our King; but other seeds are being sown, and they too must grow and will sow themselves again, and of the awful harvest, how can christians bear to think! For me it is difficult to understand the comfortable feelings of satisfaction that fill the minds and
