Government Agent Said to Have Solicited Damage Claims From Farmers on Percentage Basis.

OTTAWA, March 11 .- (Special.) -Before the commons settled down to supply on the railway estimates today, Haughton Lennox (South Simcoe) gave details of a transaction of which Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Hon. A. B. Aylesworth will require explanations from two government agents.

According to a clear cut statement by Mr. Lennox, certain lands in East Peterboro were alleged to have been flooded by the building of some dams n connection with the Trent Valley

ernment by owners of these lands, and an investigation and valuation

The valuator was a surveyor by name of Dickson, and L. F. Clarry, a former Liberal candidate for the legislature, was appointed agent of the justice department to look after the in-terests of the government.

A number of the land owners were paid apparently, on a basis of $10 an acre, but some have not been paid. It is stated that some of the claims which have not been recognized are genuine, while others which have been settled were for lands which were not permanently flooded, and for the flooding of which in the spring the overnment canal system was not re-ponsible, it being the usual rise in

Mr. Lennox alleged, and produce cuments to support his statemen that Clarry, while acting as solicitor for the government, acted for some of the claimants on a percentage basis and so conducted the affair with Dickson that those who did not appoint Clarry as their agent got noth-

Mr. Lennox read a letter from Clarry to a Hastings farmer named Graham, asking him to tell his brother to hang out for twelve or fifteen acres. He also produced a retainer form, which this agent is alleged to have sent Graham, and by which the claimant would engage Clarry's services on a 20 per cent ommission if successful in getting damages, but if unsuccessful, nothing would be paid. The Grahams, who declared they had never approached Clarry, refused to have anything to do

Another farmer, named Henry Hum phreys, made a claim, but so far has not been paid. He came to Ottawa and implained to the department of rail ways and canals that he was being held up by Clarry for 15 per cent., who had told him that if he did not put it in his (Clarry's) hands, he would get nothing. However, the departme

CANARD CAUSED BANK RUN Reward of $6,000 Offered for Arrest of CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 11 .- Afas vigorous a run upon a banking house as has ever been known in Cleveland, the stampeded depositors of the Society for Savings to-day re-gained their equilibrium, and this af-ternoon the panic was over.

In the two days and a half that the lasted, $1,250,000 was withdrawn, at the rate of $1225 a minute. Spurred on by the offer of $6000 in ewards thousands of amateur detecves are to-night searching for the originators of the groundless rumors on which the run was based.

GRAFT ALLEGED GIVE A LITTLE TO-DAY FOR NEWSBOYS' HOME

> Professional Man, Business Man, Laboring Man, Is There To Be a Club for the Little Merchants of the Street Where They Will Have a Chance to Know How To Grow Up to Better Citizenship?

IT'S UP TO YOU.

"Tag, you're it!" is a phrase which will hail the memory of every man from the golden days of childhood. There is something beautifully apt in this, for to-day is "Tag Day" and you are asked to help the children. The newsboys need a $20,000 club and you need them to have it.

There could be no more inviting invitation offered to the kindly heart. There is also the added urge that goes with the request to help those who are already working to help themselves and in many cases to help others, mothers, fathers, sisters and brothers, upon whom the weight of the struggle of life has somehow borne more heavily than upon us, their more fortunate older

This is no call from the idle calting upon the worker for support. At a meeting of the newsbors Thursday night the matter was launched. The little fellows listened shrewdly and attentiwely to the outline of the plan. At the close they were moved. Ragged little urchins, who had labored hard all the long, cold day in the weary jostle of the street turned out their packets and day in the weary jostle of the street, turned out their pockets and cast their little earnings on the table. The amounts were small, but the actions were large, and the hearts behind them beating in the shabby little breasts bigger still. These are the little soldiers of commerce whom you are asked to help. Think of those ragged out-turned pockets, and what this must mean to those boys to bring such ready giving of their all.

Now is your chance to become a brother, uncle, or at least a friend of the poor. It is not the lazy and shiftless derelict of life that you are asked to help to-day but the sturdy little mer-chants of the street who, poorly equipped in knowledge, have plunged eagerly and cheerfully into the big battle of life without complaint or self pity, with only a manful desire to do their part and succeed. That success means, in a great measure, the success of their city, of this Canada of which we are all so proud. for which we are continually professing our willingness to work

This home is to be intelligently equipped and operated. It is not intended to be the blind delivery of a toy to a horde of thoughtless children. Much more than that is meant. It is to establish a place where these little merchants of the street are to be taught cleanliness and fitness, the cleanliness and fitness of mind and body which will make them worthy and valuable citizens. It is to provide them clean amusement and healthful It is to kill the thousand evils to which their life in the streets exposes them, not by senseless and upenforceable precept or prohibition but by sane and intelligent substitution of cleaner and more inviting surroundings and amusements This is the time for every man, woman and child who be-only men in the making would rather be good than bad, clean than dirty, good citizens as against criminals and loafers, to step forward and support that faith by putting up their money, much or little, to see it thru, Back your belief. Give the little fellows a chance. The slogan of this campaign, the spirit of this enterprise, was expressed lieves that the real trend of the race is upward, that boys who are by a newsboy when a citizen asked if there was to be a newsboys' "It's up to YOU!" he said. The boy was right. Out of the street came the cry to respectability, to cleanliness, to culture. The call for the humanizing influence that helps to make each more understanding, tolerant and kindly toward the other, that makes for betterment of all, for brotherhood and fellowship. Is there to be a newsboys' home? IT'S UP TO YOU!

Manchester Mobs Patten For Squeeze in Cotton

DO YOU BELIEVE IN GHOSTS?

The Sunday World to-night will publish one of the most remarkable news stories that have ever appeared in print. It is the story of the mysterious re-appearance this week in ghostly form of a man who died. and was buried, a few weeks ago. Since his interment he has appeared three times. He talked to several people, whom The Sunday World has named and photographed, and then vanished while his words of admonition were still ringing in the ears of his startled and astounded friends. The story is told of how a Sunday World reporter and a staff photographer lay concealed for hours until they, too, were startled into credence, and found evidence of the truth of the story beyond possibility of doubt. The Sunday World will publish photographs showing every building and every individual which are a part of this astounding record. All the individuals are members of the Presbyterian Church, in good standing.

Toronto exponents of occult science are greatly interested in the phenomenon, and the case promises to take its place as one of the most remarkable in the recent history of psychic research.

The kiddies will want to see in the colored comic supplement the pictorial adventures of Granny Goodthing, Resourceful Willie and Ethelinda, Jingling Johnson and Muggsy Duggan, Historic spots and public buildings in beautiful Hamilton, spring floods in Toronto and many other pictures embellish the pictorial section.

Watch for the editorial pages, replete with crisp opinions on federal, provincial and city affairs. The Sunday World's review contains reproductions of the most notable cartoons from the greatest newspapers. There is a white slave traffic in Toronto. The Sunday World has proved it, and tells about it in a freely illustrated article. "These girls are worth their weight in gold," says Mrs. Piggins of the East Queen-

The London letter tells of the King's annoyance at the curiosity of the crowds at Brighton. The society pages contain portraits of two talented daughters of one of the foremost Canadians.

Are you thinking of making your son a journalist? The Sunday World will tell you of the chances in journalism to-day.

- The music, literary and fine art pages will be a source of delight to people of education and culture. Two pages are devoted to news of the automobile, motor boats, commercial motors and the aeroplane. Detroit workmen are moving to Canada. There's a reason. Read The Sunday World.

That is a sensational story of the millionaire who made a worldwide search for a missing wife. It will appear in the British and Foreign News Department.

The Sunday World will also have pages of theatrical news, a story of the family of Hon. R. P. Roblin, and many, many other things of

But that ghost story is the limit. Last week a Sunday World could not be purchased for love or money after 10 p.m. Agents should rush orders for extras this morning.

Queen's Park as Hard as Ottawa to Get Square Deal From, Complain Controllers in Burst of Indignation.

"I am not going to stand for this kind of treatment from the private bills committee, but will protest."

Mayor Geary spoke as above at the meeting of the board of control yesterday afternoon with reference to the committee's action in denying to the city the right to construct surface lines as necessary feeders for the tube system.

His worship's remarks were prompted by City Engineer Rust's request that he be authorized to engage an expert on underground railway construction to assist him in the preparation of the report he has been asked to make. Mr. Rust, who announced a preference for Dion J. Arnold, who supervised the construction of tubes in Chicago, was instructed to communicate with Mr. Arnold as to terms.

The mayor's indignation is fully shared by the other members of the board. The decision of the committee that the city is seeking to enter into unfair competition with the radial railways in the newer territory came as a ruge awakening and the feeling was freely expressed around the city hall that the whole tube project has been killed, unless the committee reconsiders, or the legislature undertakes to over-ride the committee.

Whole Scheme Blocked. Controller Ward said he considered the committee had given very poor re-ward to a city which has done so much for the party in power at Queen's Park, The whole tube scheme was blocked, he declared. He was particularly surprove the service in the old limits of the city. It was apparent to everybody that, if the street railway would not do anything to serve the newer dis-tricts, the city would sconer or later have to go into the tube business. He pointed out that the city's argument at Ottawa for the laying over of the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph radial railway's application was that the city might be given time to develop its tube committee's course "largely destroys the value of the tube proposition," and that it shows "there is no more inclination to give the public their sights at Queen's Park than at Ottawa."

Corporation Influence.

No one is more exercised than Ald. Maguire, chairman of the legislation Maguire, chairman of the legislation committee, who says he never saw a larger array of corporation influences than appeared before the committee. It was the effectiveness of their lobby that carried the day, he asserts. The alderman thinks it unreasonable that matters in which cities alone are concerned should be largely in the hands of country members who have no real understanding of the issues and no sympathy with the particular needs of the understanding the understanding the understanding of the issues and no sympathy with the particular needs of the understanding the suggests that the large the urbanite. EDMONTON, March 11 .- (Special.)-For ten minutes to-day the fate of the Rutherford Government hung in the balance. The crisis was precipitated by Riley, seconded by Boyle, moving a vote of lack of confidence in the government, the vote being defeated by a vote of twenty to seventeen.
