SUPPLY OF CATTLE

Trade Opened Slow at Stock Yards Yesterday Because of Prices Asked.

STOCKERS AND FEEDERS

Limited Number on Sale and Values Were Heavy-Hogs Were Firm.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 102 carloads, comprising 1562 cattle, 628 hogs, 354 sheep and lambs and 94 calves.

Butchers' cattle—The first day of the week the deliveries of fat cattle were not nearly as large as usual, and it was well that it was so, as there proved to be an ample supply to cover all demand. With a few exceptions, the quality was not as good for the bulk of the cattle usually offered on a Monday. Trade opened up slow, as drovers were asking higher values than last week's closing quotations, which the buyers declined to give; consequently the market was craggy right up to the close. There were six cattle sold at $8 to $8.26; three at $7.90; two loads at $7.75; one load at $7.70; two at $7.65, and two at $7.50. All the rest sold under these values and at steady prices with last Thursday.

Stockers and feeders—Only a limited number were on sale and values were steady. Best feeders are quoted at $6.50 to $7; best stockers at $6 to $6.50; breedy yearlings at $5.75 to $5.50; light seatern stockers have little demand at $4.75 to $5.25.

Milkers and springers—There was a yearlings at $5.75 to $5.50; light seatern stockers have little demand at $4.75 to $5.25.

Milkers and springers—There was a steady trade for those offered, and as usual the good to choice kinds were readily taken.

Calves—Only 94 were reported on sale. Prices remained steady to firm.

Sheep and lambs—Prices for these also remained firm and unchanged.

Hogs—There were few of those on the market that were on sale, not more than 150, and prices were the same, $9.75 fed and watered.

Market Notes.

Yesterday afternoon the (Hon.) Richard Palmer was the cause of a representative gathering of the wholesale fruicken, who desired to do honor to the said Richard, on the occasion of his departure, on an extended trip to the sunny fruit lands, after being connected with the firm of White & Co. for the past twenty-one years. They presented him with a very handsome leather suit case with silver fittings, the honors being done by ex-Ald. "Dave" Spence, who made a happy speech, followed by most of the leading lights in the fruit trade, who, one and all, attested to the sterling qualities of "Dick," wished him a happy journey and a safe return. Mr. Palmer feelingly replied and ended by singing two songs (his specialty).
