FOR MORE LIBERAL ONTARIO GAME LAWS

The County of Simcoe Hunters' and Game Protective Association has been organized for the purpose of suggesting to the government certain amendments to the present game laws with the idea of giving better protection to the game and also fair treatment to the hunter and true lover of Canadian outdoor sport. The following are some of the suggestions that were adopted by this association:

1. That section 13a of the Ontario game laws forbidding the killing of deer in the water be eliminated.
2. That each hunting party be allowed to kill venison while in their camp, in addition to the deer they are allowed to take home by license.
3. That some action be taken to protect the game of Ontario by prohibiting the carrying of firearms during the months of June, July and August in each year.
4. That the following animals, bear, fox, weasel, skunk and lynx, be taken from the list of fur-bearing animals and a royalty be paid the government on the same.

Representatives will wait on the government tomorrow.

GOODRICH GIVES JAWSON A LESSON

Decision in Ten Rounds —
Kennedy Beat Newton in Eight at Armories.

Jimmy Goodrich of Buffalo gave Joe Jawson of Milwaukee, a boxing lesson before a large crowd at the armories last night that he will not forget in a hurry. Goodrich has improved a lot since his last appearance here and has grown up to the lightweight class, while he packs a very much harder punch than he ever displayed before. For the first three rounds Goodrich took things easy with Jawson having a slight margin and the crowd began to get restless and call on the boys to fight. In the fourth Goodrich started to show his wares and from that time on Jawson was receiving general for all kinds of punches. Goodrich was never backed up. He was there doing his best all the way, and in the ninth and tenth staged a rally that had the crowd cheering, but Goodrich was always the best and easily earned the decision.

Iris Kennedy and Chris Newton put up a hard battle for eight rounds with the honors going to the Hamilton boy. Kennedy put in an appearance four pounds overweight, but this didn't scare Chris and for three rounds the east end boy had a slight margin, but began to tire, and Kennedy scored repeatedly with a straight left to Newton's face and right hooks to the stomach. Both were very tired at the finish.

Freewe Adams and Packy McGrath staged another of their eight-round battles. The judges called it a draw, but it looked if McGrath was getting considerably the best of the decision. Scotty Lamer was on the short end of

The Case of Baseball Judge Landis In the Hands of Committee of Lawyers

Washington, Feb. 21.—The right of a federal judge to accept outside employment while serving on the bench was sharply questioned by members of the House Judiciary committee today, in considering impeachment charges against Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

After Representative Welby (Democrat, Ohio) had outlined the grounds on which he asked for the impeachment of Judge Landis because of his $42,500 a year contract as supreme arbiter of organized baseball, members insisted that the committee should go thoroughly into the case. With this in view, Chairman Volstead announced that the question would be taken up Wednesday.

It will be left entirely for the committee, composed exclusively of lawyers, to decide whether there is sufficient ground to justify presentation of the case to the house of representatives. Should the house vote to impeach, the senate would act as the trial court.

Three Republican members, Representatives Husted (New York), Goodkowitz (West Virginia) and Boies (Iowa), openly expressed opposition to the double-service of the judge. Mr. Husted declared that acceptance of so large an outside salary was outrageous, but in fact said that the committee should have facts on which to draw an indictment. Mr. Boies thought the judge might be asked to draw an indictment. Mr. Goodkowitz said that if Judge Landis' course was legally and morally proper, there was nothing to hold another meeting behind closed doors.

DEMAND THE BATON FOR GEN. CASTELNAU

French Catholic Organs Criticize Exclusion From List of Marshals.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The promotion of Generals Fayolle, d'Esperey and Lyauty to be Marshals of France has been generally well received by the newspapers of all shades of political opinion. They are virtually unanimous in declaring that the valiant soldiers were deserving of the honor, but the Catholic organs bitterly deplore the fact that General Castelnau was not included in the honors. The Echo de Paris says this was "a shameful act."

In the moving picture theatres, on the boulevards today pictures of the new marshals were thrown on the screen. The spectators drowned out the applause for the honored men with cries of "Castelnau!"

At the time of the victory parade of July 14, 1918, General Castelnau was greeted on all sides with cries of "Marshall!" He is one of the most popular generals in the French army as far as the public is concerned owing to his victory at Nancy, where General Fayolle was under his orders, and also by reason of the fact that three of his sons were killed in the war.

Deputy Ambrose Randu has notified the government that he will interpellate the chamber this week as to the reasons for the failure to include General Castelnau among those promoted.

The moderate Socialist papers today arraign the government for not having selected General Sarrail for a marshalship. Justin Godart will interpellate the government on this behalf.

All Baraca players and supporters are asked to attend a meeting of the Baraca F. C. at Baraca Club, Bancroft street (just north of City Dairy), Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, at 8 o'clock, for training as usual immediately after the meeting, and every Tuesday evening, until further notice. New players are specially invited to become connected with the club. The club offers excellent facilities for training.
