

The income during 1866 was—

Interest on Investments.....	$1,091.04
Premiums of Clergy	622.85
Collections and Subscriptions	535.26

$2,249.15

Donation from the Bishop in the name of the late Mrs. Binney.....	844.91
--	--------

$3,094.06

The Committee are glad to report that the collections were more generally made during 1866 than in previous years, although there are still many parishes which neglect the fund.* The amount of premiums of the clergy has been increased by the payment of back premiums.

* It must be observed that the continuance of the pension at the rate of $200 must depend, in a great measure, upon the exertions of the parochial clergy to support and increase the fund by annual collections in their parishes.
