

From yonder lawn sweet odious rise,
And new mown hay perfumes the plain;
Hear distant thunder rend the skies!
See lightning—see drenching rain.

"How we perspire!" said the beef-steak to the gridiron. Yes, captain Blowzy, it's rather warm; but don't let us jump out of the frying-pan into the fire, by pouring down too much hot rum into our throats. I went up to squire Snoodle's store the other day for a half bushel of salt. It was just at night after I had cooked up what little hay I had out. "By my troth," said I, as I entered the shop door, "this is rather aginst the parish." For there sat Tom Toodle and Ben Snoodle; Rob Raikens and Jo Jakin, with 6 or 8 more, turning punch from right to left; and, could you believe it, 'tis true as life, I there saw two of my good, honest and most reputable fellow townsmen snug among them; old captain Cleverly and Mr. David Easyman! I was touched to the very soul; and looking inciguantly at them, I cried, come out from among them.

Hill Indian corn--reap early sown grain. Let no weeds be allowed to go to seed in your fields or gardens; and let no root of bitterness spring up between you and your neighbours.
