Monday Morning We Commence Our Semi-Annual Low Price Distribution of Arts and Crafts Sample Pieces

Close to $10,000 Worth of Manufacturers' Samples of Mission Furniture Gathered by Our Buyers for this Big Selling Event

THOSE who have attended former occasions of this sort in this store need not to be told that an Adams Sale of Mission Furniture is an important event. Every manufacturer of arts and crafts pieces of note exerts his best influence to help us make these sales notable. Our ability to buy in enormous quantities—to take whatever lot, no matter how large, a maker may have to sell—gives us first call on the markets and secures us the best bargains obtainable. The present sale is sure to impress this fact on all who attend.

Few Pieces Alike — Most Every Piece is of Selected Quartered Oak — All Finished in Cabinet Makers' Best Way

In this lot—just fresh from the makers—are chairs, rockers, couches, tables, desks, etc., for libraries, dens, dining-rooms, sitting-rooms, etc., all splendidly made and fashioned on quaint mission lines, as well as a number of pieces in "Flanders" designs. Frames are of solid oak, mostly quarter sawn. The finishes are "weathered," "fumed" and "early English." Upholstered pieces are in most cases of best leather coverings. Many have copper and brass trimmings. Too many to tell of here, but a few items are given to show the money savings possible:
