

to accept a transfer of the church property from those members of St. James Square congregation who had hitherto acted as Trustees.

Mr. R. Clarke Steele moved, seconded by Mr. Campbell, "That the Secretary be requested to acknowledge the receipt of these communications, and to convey to St. John's Church the congratulations of the members of St. James Square on the prosperity which has attended them in the past : also, to state that, while financial aid is no longer required from St. James Square, the sympathy and goodwill of the latter would be continued; and that Messrs. John Y. Reid, William D. McIntosh and Alexander Nairn, the acting Trustees, be authorized to transfer the church property to the Trustees appointed by St. John's congregation." Carried.

Mr. Charles S. McDonald, the Superintendent of the Sabbath School, made a short statement on its behalf, asking for the teachers the sympathy and co-operation of the parents. He urged that as many as possible of the children of the congregation should regularly attend the School.

Mr. W. E. Long, Treasurer of the Poor Fund, read his statement for the past year,—showing receipt (including balance from 1893 of $37.18) of $180.28, with disbursements of $123.49, leaving on hand at end of 1894, $56.79.

On motion of Dr. McPhedran, seconded by Mr William E. Long, the pastor, together with Messrs. Kirkland, Henderson, Gray and Paton, were appointed a committee to attend to the printing of the Annual Reports of the congregation.

The meeting was then brought to a close.
