RICHMOND.

Our meetings, though small, are interesting. We generally find time for a reading of missionary import.

Pres., Mrs. E. J. Green; Cor. Sec., Mrs. A. M. Sexsmith. Annual members, 7.

PORT SIMPSON.

Our members are so scattered that we never have a full gathering, and during the summer months no meetings are held; but the few members here at Port Simpson attend pretty regularly, and we have had some very good meetings. At our February meeting we had a thankoffering of $38.50. One of our native members who had not understood the reason of our giving, after we had explained, said she would do what she could, and shortly after she gave Mrs. Crosby $4, enclosed in an envelope, with the words, "The Lord gave me this few money, and I return it to Him again." May we all work, for the night cometh.

Pres., Mrs. Crosby; V.-Pres., Mrs. Jennings; Cor. Sec., Miss Hart; Rec. Sec., Mrs. Bolton; Treas., Miss Spence.
