RECENT DEATHS

J. H. H. Goldsworthy. Death came suddenly last evening to J. Henry H. Goldsworthy, assistant scout master of the Waterloo street Baptist church. While drilling the scouts at the church hall between 9 and 10 o'clock last evening, Mr. Goldsworthy was suddenly taken ill. Dr. Dunlop was summoned but the unfortunate young man passed away a few minutes after his arrival. Coroner Kenney was notified and after viewing the body decided that death was due to natural causes, and that an inquest was unnecessary.

The late Mr. Goldsworthy was in apparently good health up to the time the sudden call came. He was a well known and popular scoutmaster, and was usually yesterday and partook of a hearty supper last evening, leaving home in good spirits about 8 o'clock. Previous to starting the drill at the church he chatted with some of the boys present, and gave no evidence that he was suffering from any illness.

The deceased was about forty years of age, and he has for a number of years been in the employ of C. H. Peters & Sons, and has for more than a year taken an active interest in boy scout work.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters. Three brothers also survive. They are Albert, of Hingham (Mass.), and William J. and Stephen of this city. Mrs. George Wood, of Hingham, is a sister.

Mrs. Manzer Reid. The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Manzer Reid, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Reid, who was a native of Hampton, had been living in St. John for the last few months and she died at her home, 159 Main street. She was formerly Miss Beatrice Jenkins and her mother is still living in Hampton. Her husband and three small children also survive. The funeral is to take place at Hampton tomorrow.

Mrs. Mary Laskey. Mary M. Laskey, one of St. John's oldest residents, passed away last evening at the age of ninety-three years. For many years she had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm N. White, Winter street. Yesterday she went a short distance to visit another daughter, Mrs. M. J. Maher, when she was taken ill and passed away.

Mrs. Laskey was born in Burton in 1825, daughter of the late James Till, who landed with the Loyalists. She is survived by two sons, G. Howard and Andrew H.; and three daughters, Mrs. Thomas McDonald.

Word has reached here of the death of Thomas McDonald, formerly of the North End, who died Oct. 18 in West Virginia. He left the city about thirty years ago, but still there are many here who will remember him. He leaves one sister here, Miss Elizabeth McDonald, and one brother in California.

James MacMillan. The death of James MacMillan, a lifelong and highly respected resident of New Mills, occurred on Wednesday morning last after an illness of two weeks. He was seventy-two years of age, was well and favorably known throughout the province, having conducted a general store and lumber business for more than thirty years.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Elizabeth Jane Reid, and the following children: Mrs. David Henderson, of Bay Shore House, Charlottetown; Dr. dental surgeon, Newcastle; John D., station master, Eel River; Arthur, in the farming and lumber business; R. Edwin at home; and Mrs. Murray Nichol, Glen Levitt.

William Cook. Black Lands, N. B., Oct. 20—The death of William Cook occurred at his home here on Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock after a lingering illness. Deceased was in his seventy-seventh year. He leaves to mourn his wife and seven daughters—Mrs. C. W. Beaton, Charlottetown; Mrs. John Miller, New Mills; Mrs. B. A. Toner, Victoria (B. C.); Mrs. W. Graves, Waterville (N. H.); Mrs. C. Robertson, Heron Island; Elizabeth and Myrtle, at home; and three sons—P. William, of Charlottetown; Leslie, at home; and Joseph C., of the Royal Bank staff, Lunenburg. He is also survived by three sisters—Mrs. J. Hamilton, Janet, of Charlottetown; and Mrs. James Hamilton, Black Lands.

DOMINION L. O. L. FAIR. Dominion L. O. L. fair, that is being held in Simonds street during this week, was very largely attended last night, and all the booths and tables were well patronized throughout the evening. The prize at the excelsior table was an umbrella and this was won by William McDonald. The prize at the gentlemen's bean board was a box of cigars, and
