

the afternoon—the church being crowded at each of the services. The collections at the three services amounted to $516.70. There were also slips, or due bills, put into the plates, amounting to $219. The names of said subscribers have been entered on the Subscription Book, and the money will be accounted for with the other subscriptions to the Building Fund. On Monday evening, Nov. 1st, there was a very largely attended social meeting held. The refreshments were served in the basement, and afterwards addresses were delivered in the church by Rev. Dr. Ormiston, Rev. D. Inglis, our Pastor, and Alex. McKenzie, Esq., M.P. The Rev. Mr. Innes, of the Church of England, also took part in the proceedings by opening the meeting with prayer, and nearly all the ministers in the city, and several from a distance, were present, giving their countenance and support to the congregation on this interesting occasion. The nett proceeds of the social meeting was $483.34. The total amount received from opening services was as follows:

Collections on Sabbath.....	$516.70
Due Bills put into Plates.....	219.00
Nett Proceeds of Social Meeting.....	483.34
	<hr/>
	$1219.04

The congregation are under great obligations to the Rev. Dr. Ormiston and Rev. D. Inglis, for the able and valuable assistance given on that occasion.

The old churches being no longer required for the use of the congregation, were disposed of as follows: The large church was sold for \$300, cash; and the Gaelic Church, with the thirty-five feet of land on which it stands, was sold at auction for \$670— $\frac{1}{3}$ cash, the balance in three annual instalments.

Since last year's Report was presented, the tender of $400 for heating, by Messrs. Millar, and also the tender of $500