

WOOD DOESN'T YIELD TO STEEL IN CASE OF PARRSBORO SHIPPERS

"THE shipping men on the Parrsboro shore have never accepted the flat that wood had to yield to steel, and they are successful in maintaining their lines of traffic on the Atlantic seaboard, as the deposits in the Savings Banks at Parrsboro show," a Kentville correspondent writes, and adds: "About fifty wooden vessels are owned and operated in that district."

"The three-master, William Melbourne, wrecked recently in the Bay of Fundy, and a total loss, was loaded with wood pulp from the Avon Power Company mill, on the Gaspeaux River, back of this town," he continues. "This company is shipping to the United States about 2,500 tons a year."

"Four car loads of spruce bushes are being shipped by D. A. R. from here to the United States for Christmas trees."

MIXED FARMING DOES WELL.

"Those farmers who converted their potato fields into orchards, look with envy on mixed farming pursued by old fashioned farmers. The latter, in the valley are having a banner year. The second year of poor apple crops is having a disastrous effect on the bank account of the orchardist. The fight against tribes of insects and the cost of fertilizers are in many cases overtopping all possible returns."

ESTABLISHED INDUSTRY.

"Raising chickens and eggs has with in a couple of years become an established industry, with every indication growing into importance. In the Cornwallis Valley, Messrs. A. D. Clarke,

HOME WRECKED AND STORE IS RIDDLED

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 25.—The scene in the Skellon-Birger gang warfare shifted to Harrisburg again today, when the home of Virgil Hundacker, one block from the home of Charley Birger, gang leader, was wrecked by a dynamite explosion and the store front of Sam Ripperdam was riddled by bullets fired by five unidentified men.

Ripperdam was wounded slightly in the head when struck by buckshot.

Two Halifax Bowling Teams Beat 1,600 Mark

HALIFAX, Nov. 26.—Halifax bowlers turned in the best exhibition of bowling witnessed locally in years in the course of City League games last night. Two teams rolled above the 1,600 mark, winding up their game with 1,650 and another finishing with 1,615. Five of the eight teams in the league rolled better than 1,550, and twenty-six out of forty players topped the 300 mark.
