JACK DELANEY FACES GORMAN IN TRIAL TILT

French-Canadian 2 to 1 Favorite in Bout Tonight—Rosenberg in Action

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 20.—Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., tonight rides to the heavyweight elimination wars with husky New Yorkerman Gorman, and the French-Canadian rules a 2 to 1 favorite despite the fact that Gorman will have a weight advantage of more than 20 pounds.

ROSENBERG AND MACK

The 10-round semi-final will give Gorman, a ring campaigner of 10 years' experience, his never been knocked out. His record shows victories over Bob Lawson, over Carl Carter, Harry Persson (Iowa), and Jack Sharkey. He beat Sharkey a year ago, but in a return fight lost to the same boxer on a foul in the opening session.

K. KOZULUH, of Vienna, captured the professional tennis championship of France at Cannes recently. He defeated Albert Burke, thrice the titleholder, in the final match of the Bristol Cup tournament, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, 6-0.

COMPLETE REGULATIONS

OXFORD University Harrow and Hounds had the severest test so far this season when they met the Surrey A. C. at Tolworth recently. They won, however, by 19 points to 86, thus maintaining their unbeaten record of the season. The course of about seven miles was extremely heavy.

DRAT THAT RAT!

NEW YORK—An eye for an eye and a life for a set of false crumblers. That revision of the modern proverb applies to the warfare between Oscar and Dennis. Oscar was a rat and Dennis was a hatter in the apartment where both lived. There was tolerance and good will on all sides until Oscar lugged away Dennis' set of false teeth. That spoiled Oscar's demise. Dennis has had the uppers sterilized and they bite nicely, he reports.
