

SIR R. BORDEN IS OFFERED A CABINET POST

Nova Scotia Seat in Senate Proposed; Sought by Meighen as Adviser

MONTREAL, July 7.—Le Devoir, organ of Henri Bourassa, former M. P. for Labelle, this evening gives prominence to the following in part: "According to what can be learned today one of the bombs which the Conservatives are preparing to launch is the re-entry of Sir Robert Borden, former Prime Minister of Canada from 1911 to 1919, into active politics in order to assist Mr. Meighen with his counsel and direction during the forthcoming election campaign. It is recalled that Sir Robert Borden, following the war, quit politics and yielded his place to Mr. Meighen, who took over the direction of the Conservative cabinet, which was re-cast and defeated in the elections at the end of 1921.

Mr. Meighen within the past few weeks has hastened to secure Sir Robert Borden's advice; the latter received him cordially and inspired certain of his decisions.

SENATE MENTIONED.

"It has been said that Mr. Meighen will nominate Sir Robert Borden to the Senate, to represent one of the constituencies of Nova Scotia; and it has been added that the former prime minister will become Conservative leader in the Senate, thus taking the place of Senator Robertson, former Conservative minister of Labor in the Meighen cabinet prior to the 1921 elections."

Le Devoir reviews Sir Robert's activities during the past six years, drawing attention to his authoritative work on constitutional law and says: "Whatever the former friends of Sir Robert Borden think of it, it is known that he is invited to take part in the eleven government with the title of minister without portfolio and as technical advisor on constitutional affairs and that he has not yet refused; it is added that he is even strongly tempted to take the position."

TALKED OF FOR CABINET.

OTTAWA, July 7.—Among the cabinet possibilities talked of here is R. McMillan, Conservative candidate in Saskatoon in the last general election. Mr. McMillan was only 189 votes behind his Liberal opponent, Dr. A. M. Young, in a three-cornered fight in which Mr. Kirkpatrick, Progressive, polled 1,417 votes. The fact that in the 1921 election the Progressive candidate polled a big majority, while his opponent dropped to such a small majority last October, gives rise to the belief in some quarters that Mr. McMillan would have a fair chance

Chautauqua Program Last Evening Address and Musical Recital

In his address entitled "Of One Mind," Montville Flowers laid before his large audience in the Chautauqua tent last night facts and figures of increasing world population, of migration of peoples, of relative fecundity of high grade and lower grade nations and the problems which these facts have created. He spoke at the evening program and those who shared honors with him in yesterday's program were the members of the Harrison Hufsmith recital company, who gave a concert in the afternoon and a recital in the evening. They showed great talent and gave a brilliant performance of classical and popular selections. The members of the company were two lyric vocalists, Elizabeth Harrison, soprano, Fredrick Hufsmith, tenor, and Helen Hall, pianist and accompanist.

of winning if there is again a three-cornered fight in Saskatoon.

WHITE ALSO SUGGESTED.

The Conservatives had no member from Saskatchewan in the House. In the tentative cabinet, which is being constructed and reconstructed on "Parliament Hill" these days, Mr. McMillan's name is prominent among the possibilities from Saskatchewan.

W. White, Conservative candidate in Moose Jaw, last October, is also suggested as a possible minister from Saskatchewan. He also ran his Liberal opponent a close second in a three-cornered fight.

N. S. STEEL AND COAL REPORTS LOSS FOR YEAR

Net Deficit of All Firms in Concern Placed at $1,488,100

MONTREAL, July 7.—A considerable loss for the year ended December 31, 1925, is indicated in the annual report of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, the first financial statement made public by the company since it became part of the British Empire Steel Corporation in 1920.

The report which will be presented to the shareholders at their annual meeting next Friday, is divided into two parts. One of these shows consolidated profit and loss statement and balance sheet for Nova Scotia Steel and its constituent companies, and the other shows the corresponding statement of N. S. Steel statement alone.

Consolidated profit and loss statement shows a net loss for the year amounting to $1,488,100, while the Nova Scotia Company report alone shows a loss for the year of $1,261,400, indicating that $226,700 of the year's loss is applicable to operations of the constituent companies.

INTEREST ARRANGED.

The report of the directors contains the announcement that arrangements were made to meet the bond interest payment on July 1 on the 6 per cent first mortgage bonds of the Eastern Car Company. As the outstanding amount of this issue is $841,900, the interest requirements for the six months amounted to only $25,287.

The constituent companies of Nova Scotia Steel, controlled through holdings of their capital stock, include the following: Eastern Car Company, Acadia Coal Company, West SS. Company and Nova Scotia Land Company. The report further states, in part: "In addition to the items appearing on the assets side of the balance sheet the company has very large claims for repayment of losses suffered during the late war, which have never been set up in its accounts, but in respect to

FINDS BICYCLE

A bicycle that had been abandoned on Rothsey avenue near Fernhill cemetery was found by Provincial Constable H. A. Shortcliffe last evening. The constable thought it more likely that the machine had been appropriated by some one that was not its owner and had then been left by the roadside to avoid any inconveniences of legal action. The rightful owner can have the bicycle by communicating with the constable.

CANTON ASKS NAVAL OFFICER TO BE FIRED

CANTON, July 7.—The Canton government has demanded the dismissal of the British naval officer here because he is alleged to have threatened to close the port of Wuchow on the Siliang River, west of here, against Chinese shipping, if pilots are not permitted to take British warships up the river to investigate the death recently of J. M. Phillips, a British subject. Phillips, British manager of the Asiatic Petroleum Company, was slain by bandits after being kidnapped.

"—we missed that drop by inches"

"You never know when you want a headlight behind," says the man-who-tells-about-it, after he nearly backed his car over the end of a greasy culvert. Six inches separated his family and his automobile from an eight-foot drop into a muddy stream. "It took a heap of matches before we got clear," he said, "so now I carry an Eveready flashlight."

Exactly! That's why every wise motorist, in these days of touring and camping carries

Note these features: octagonal lens ring—rests without rolling; end-ring hanger—hang it up; safety lock switch; focussing device—graduating from a piercing 300-foot beam to a wide arc near at hand; ribbed case in nickel or gunmetal; bevelled lens of clear crystal. No wonder the Eveready Flashlight is generally accepted as the best in the world.

Service for Life

We agree to repair and put in working order any EVEREADY FLASHLIGHT. This agreement holds during the life of the flashlight. If you have a dussed one, send it to us.
