THE NEW POINT OF VIEW.

The old outworn attitude of law-makers in the past has been that property was more valuable than the individual human being. In the light of that opinion it is not surprising that laws were made to protect property and to recognize its rights as supreme. The new attitude recognizes man as more important, and while it safeguards property, it does not put it first. It is in this new attitude that the hope for future penal laws lies. Hereafter, law has punished crime, and taken no cognizance of the criminal. Hereafter, the tendency will be to punish the criminal, making the punishment fit the offender and tend towards his betterment. That does not mean that no cognizance of the crime will be taken. Both will be kept in mind, and the greatest good of the community will thus be conserved. In the march towards democracy mankind must rank higher than property.

NEW BUILDING FOR COURT HOUSE IS THEIR WISH

Meeting of Citizens Last Night in
Board of Trade Rooms Expressed
Favor For Tearing Down
Present Shell—Plans Discussed

At a meeting last night in the board of trade rooms under the auspices of the St. John branch, Engineering Institute of Canada, more than sixty representative men expressed themselves as desirous of seeing a new structure replace the old court house. Considerable discussion arose from the presentation of a report from Messrs. Ross and McDonald, architects, of Montreal, advocating the abandonment of the shell now standing and the erection of a building to suit municipal requirements and to serve as a civil centre. Plans were attached, showing sketches of two edifices suggested, one at a cost of about $200,000, the other $1,400,000.

Citizens present expressed themselves in favor of tearing down the present walls and building on the site a structure which would be creditable as a municipal centre, useful and suitable for the needs of the future. Those who spoke in favor of the abandonment of the shell at present remaining were Commissioner Thornton, F. A. Dykeman, C. M. Lingier, Dr. Jas. Manning, Mr. Patterson and R. E. Armstrong. Commissioner Bullock said he did not see the need of a court house and a city hall being in the same building. George Hatfield said that when the court house was rebuilt the site should be altered to conform to the law, as it encroaches forty feet along King street east. A. R. Crookshank spoke of a plan for control of one-third of the block, G. E. Hare said if the city wished to have the whole block it should be done before any building was attempted. Further discussion was left until next Thursday night.

"You Are Under Weight, My Boy"

"YES, sir."

"Do you know what that means?"

"No, sir."

"It means that your body is not properly nourished. You are not getting the right food, or else not obtaining full benefit of the food you eat! Are you easily tired?"

"Yes, sir."

"How are you getting along at school?"

"Not very well."

"Now, I am going to send a report to your parents, so that they may know your condition, and I want you to do what I tell you, so as to regain your normal weight."

"All right, sir."

"You can never expect to get far in athletics, or school either, so long as your blood is thin for lack of proper nourishment and your nerves starved and exhausted."

"We shall go a little easy on exercise, and I have asked your parents to see that you eat plenty of plain, nourishing food. I have also suggested the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so as to enrich the blood and tone up your nervous system."

"Is that a medicine?"

"Yes, I suppose you might call it that, but it is entirely different to most medicines, because it builds up tissue instead of tearing it down. It is what is called a restorative. It sharpens the appetite, improves digestion and helps you to obtain full benefit of the food you eat. We are not much on medicines around here, but Chase's Nerve Food has helped so many under-weight boys whom I know that I never lose an opportunity to recommend it."

"I hope it helps me, for I would like to be able to do 'stunts' like the other fellows, and I don't seem to have the strength now."

"You are ready to do your part then? That is what I want to know."

"Yes, sir, I am."

"We will weigh you every week, and I am sure we shall soon have you all right."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
