The Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Philadelphia Nationals 5 to 2 in the last game of their series yesterday. The Athletics won four games out of five.

Twelve Inning Tie.
The Chicago Americans and the Chicago Nationals played a tie game at Chicago yesterday the score being 3 to 3. The game was called in the twelfth inning.

Rooters Halt Trial.
New York, Oct. 11.—The $200,000 suit of the Pennsylvania Steel Company against the city of New York was temporarily postponed because baseball rooters, watching a bulletin board, made so much noise it was impossible to continue the trial.

Matty for Better Terms.
Christy Mathewson, who is always prominent and usually foremost in plans to benefit ball players, and who is considered the brains of the professional players and their spokesman whenever real or imagined evils crop out derogatory to their interests, thinks the National Commission is altogether too arbitrary in its methods of dictating what the players' share of the receipts of the world's series should be.

Mathewson in fact insists, or rather threatens, that if the players' share is curtailed in future games, the National Commission will find itself left flat by one club or the other that is entitled to play for the position of the universe, and that it refuses to take part in the games. Mathewson's present complaint is the commission's refusal to allow the players to share in any play-off game, in case there is a tie in any game of the first four played.

Mathewson also thinks the players are entitled to be represented in the financial settlement of the world's series receipts to know how all tickets are disposed of and why the national commission is entitled to its big percentage of the receipts.

Good Good; Good Fan.
The Boston American says:—There's a Red Sox fan up in Groton, Vt., who is not only a loyal rooster, but also a loyal son. He was out in the fifty-cent bleachers—had been there, in fact since a little before ten.

For an hour or so, he gazed about the big Fenway Park, taking in all the sights that were so different from those to be observed when the town team plays its rivals from the county seat on a Saturday afternoon. Then he consulted his watch for the twentieth time. Only half past eleven.

His thoughts wandered from world's series games to a little town up in the Green Mountain state. He must have been some town officer up there in Groton, for the sheet of paper he drew from his pocket was printed with the town's official head. Curiosity made one peer over the Groton name and, and curiosity can't be so unparadiseable at a world's series game, when there isn't going to be any real action for a matter of two hours or more.

"Dear Mother," he began, and then the curious one behind him looked away until he had finished. At last the Groton man took an address envelope from his pocket, sealed the letter and stamped it with two one-cent letters. He was more or less secure around Fenway Park, but there's no doubt he found the nearest one after he tied out in the gathering dusk.
He was a fine, upstanding, healthy young fellow of about thirty-three. His mother, Groton, Vt., and the Red Sox should be proud of him. Groton will doubtless for give him the sheet of town note paper and he will doubtless forgive this story.

Many New Stars.
The new crop of ball players in the major leagues, including those who broke in this year or the latter part of last year, has made a pretty respectable showing in fast company.

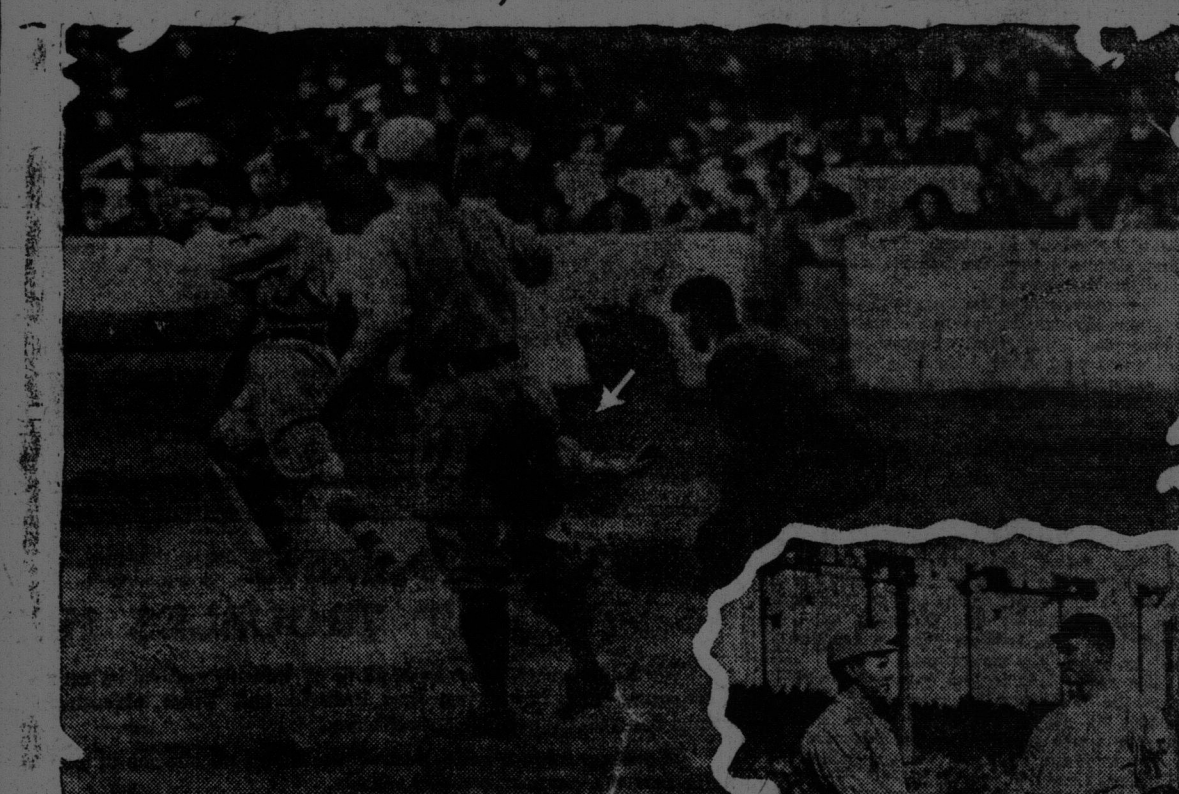

Jean Dubuc, the Detroit pitcher, although he has been in the big leagues before, may be numbered among the late arrivals. Another come-back who drifted back to the minors between seasons in last company is George McConnell, like the Otto Huss.

Among the newest crop of pitchers this year are Baskette, Sloan, Benz, Hamilton, Allison, two or three Browns, O'Brien, Benedict, Houck, Peters and Baumgardner, the American League, and Lavender, Bureau, Cheney, Riker, Seaton, Benton, Allen, Robinson, Wiley and Yingling in the National.

Prominent fans in other positions are Foster and Gandell of the Washingtons.

SENSATIONAL SCENE IN FIRST GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES, AND THE OPPOSING PITCHERS

New York, Oct. 11.—Beaten to the final jump, trailing by the score of 4 to 2, the Giants' attack in the first game of the world's series fell upon Joe Wood in the ninth round and came within one blow of tearing off the victory. With the count 4 to 3 Herzog on third and Becker on second, Wood rose to the supreme test by striking out Fletcher and Crandall in a row, while 35,000 New York fans groaned a chorus of despair. The Red Sox won, and the "jump" game went to Boston. Stopped for five rounds without a hit by both of whom were in big league company once before and returned to that company greatly improved.

Other recent additions to the big league family are Cady of the Red Sox, Margaret of the Athletics, Stettin of the Highlanders, Shanks of Washington, Peckinpaugh of Cleveland, Weaver of the White Sox, Rath of the White Sox, Kuhn of the White Sox, Egan of the Athletics, Menor of the Pirates, Grok of the Giants, Cuthshaw of the Brooklyn, Smith of the Brooklyn, Philan of the Reds, Northern of the Brooklyn, Moran of the Brooklyn and Magee of the Cardinals.

Girl Fan Unconscious on Grounds.
Margaret Rooney, a young woman of New York, a frenzied baseball fan and a powerful rooster for the Giants, was overcome by the disappointment caused by the failure of her heroes to win from the Red Sox on Wednesday that she collapsed and was found lying unconscious in Fenway Park, and turned over to the police for care and protection.
It was not until next day that the young woman regained consciousness. She said her name was Margaret Rooney. She is about twenty-five years of age.
When the grounds keeper found her it was dark. She was lying in an out-of-the-way place behind the seats, where she could not be seen by the casual observer. The keeper tried to arouse her, but failed, so he called the police, and she was removed to the City Hospital.

She appeared to be a very refined and intellectual young person and the cause of her peculiar illness was a puzzle to the medical men at the hospital. Her sickness was possibly due to the excitement and over-exertion at the game and a form of hysteria, followed by the state of coma.

Football Kings Team Wins.
The Kings College football squad defeated the Mount Allison team 5 to 0 in their game at Sackville yesterday. L. A. Buckley of Amherst refereed.

Match Here.
The U. N. B. squad will play a match with the Company A fifteen on the Marathon grounds this afternoon, beginning at three o'clock.

A Fatality.
Montreal, Oct. 11.—Calvin McCallum, son of Angus McCallum, of 324 Grosvenor avenue, Westmount, died this morning from injuries received in a football match yesterday afternoon.

In a collision with another player, the lad was knocked out, and remained unconscious for twenty minutes, but afterwards played the game through. On reaching home, however, he again relapsed into unconsciousness and died this morning from hemorrhage of the brain.

Young McCallum was sixteen years of age and was captain of the team for which he was playing, that of Westmount Academy. The opposing team was that of Royal Canada College.

The Ring

Baldwin Beate Brown.
"Knockout" Brown, the wonderful New York lightweight, has at last been humbled in a decision bout. Matty Baldwin of Charlestown lowered the colors of the sturdy Dutchman in a stirring twelve round contest at the Pilgrim A. A., Boston, on Wednesday.

Though defeated, Brown is not disgraced. He put up a grand battle, but he was outgeneraled and outboxed by a very

Sergt. Thomas P. Conneff who was found dead in the Philippines this week, was famed as a distance runner the world over and his mile record, 4 m. 15.3-5, made at Travers Island, N. Y., Aug. 25, 1885, stood as the best amateur mark until supplanted by John Paul Jones who cut Conneff's mark a fifth of a second at the intercollegiate games at Harvard, May 27, 1911.

Abel Kiviat equalled Conneff's record of the Eastern Olympic tryouts last June, but the little Irish runner Conneff ran his race on a five-lap track, while the other records were made in an open half-mile handicap at Clane in June, 1885, winning in two minutes seventeen seconds from the forty-five yard mark. To July he won his first mile at Killeck, County Kildare, in 5m. 30s. from the forty yard mark.

During July, August and September of 1885 Conneff scored several victories in distance handicaps.

Conneff was born at Clane, County Kildare, Ireland, December 18, 1867. He was five feet 6 1/2 inches in height, and weighed when in condition 133 pounds. He made his first appearance in an open half-mile handicap at Clane in June, 1885, winning in two minutes seventeen seconds from the forty-five yard mark.

At the Yale meet, held in February of that year he ran in the mile, unplaced, from scratch, but later in the season he polished off all the American cracks handsly and returned to Ireland.

In July, 1888, the Irish lad won the one-mile championship of England at Crewe in 4m. 31.3-5, defeating Kibbleshite, Pollock, Hill and C. H. Mabey, the British cracks.

In the same month Conneff again beat Carter over five miles at Ballsbridge, Dublin, in 32m. 24s.

Returning to New York Conneff captured the national one-mile and five-mile championships and also won the one and two mile championships of Canada. He continued to win about his own record, but later in the season he was forced to get in condition and made a poor showing.

The following year he located in Worcester and came back to racing form in a manner that enabled him to make the remarkable performance of 4:17.4-5 for the one mile in a big handicap meet held at Holmes Field, Cambridge, which, considering the great field he was forced to pick his way through, was considered a remarkable performance.

After 1885 Conneff was groomed to try for the record for the mile, which he clipped to 4m. 15.3-5.

Conneff ran in and won so many races that columns would be necessary to detail them all. He held four world's amateur records, as follows:

Three-quarters mile, Travers Island, Aug. 21, 1885, 4m. 2.4-5.
Mile, Travers Island, Aug. 30, 1885, 4m. 15.3-5.
Mile and quarter, Bergen Point, Sept. 2, 1885, 5m. 33.4-5.

Mile and one-half, Bergen Point, Sept. 2, 1885, 6m. 4.3-5.

On Oct. 11 this Conneff held the following championships:

25-30-Half mile, 2m. 2-5, and mile in 4m. 32.2-5. In 1887, four-mile championship, at Dublin, in 20m. 34.4-5. In 1887, and four-mile championship, Belfast, in 22m. 48s. in 1888.

Canadian—Mile run, 4m. 32.4-5, in 1888, and two miles the same year in 10m. 49.3-5. In 1889, five mile in 20m. 42s. in 1889; five mile in 22m. 37.4-5, in 1890, and in 1891 he won the mile in 4m. 30.2-5, and the five miles in 17m. 38.2-5.

American—Mile run in 4m. 32.3-5, also the five-mile twice in 22m. 38s. and in 20m. 49.3-5, in 1889; five mile in 20m. 42s. in 1889; five mile in 22m. 37.4-5, in 1890, and in 1891 he won the mile in 4m. 30.2-5, and the five miles in 17m. 38.2-5.

At the county fair at Independence, Mo., there was an exhibition of a set of furniture consisting of two chairs, two tables, two picture frames and a hall rack, made of 700 horse hair from Kentucky steers. The furniture was made by B. F. Whitmer of Independence. Polished horse were used for frames and ornaments, and all smooth surfaces were inlaid with bits of black and white horn in checker-board pattern. A pocket knife was the only tool used and Whitmer often spent months in trimming the stubborn material to fit a particular angle. The hall rack contains 1491 pieces of horn, Whitmer spent fifteen years in all on the work.

A moving-picture firm which has been taking at a water hole in Abyssinia pictures of animals which come there from miles around to quench their thirst, furnishes the information that it is the effluvia of the jungle for the elephant to drink first. No matter how many animals are around the water hole, they all stand aside for the greatest beast of all.

Many of the animals come forty to fifty miles for a drink, and there is a true belief even between the most deadly enemies.

A Japanese periodical has completed a list of all the subjects of the Mikado who may be reckoned among the wealthy, and it showed that only 1018 Japanese possess a capital of $250,000 or more. Nevertheless, if the Japanese are, generally speaking, poor, it would seem that they are rapidly becoming rich, for less than ten years ago there seems to have been only 41 who possessed a capital of $250,000.

The odd architecture of St. John's church, South square, Westminster, Eng., is thus accounted for: The architect was reputed to have worried Queen Anne about the design. Her Majesty at length losing patience kicked her footstool over and remarked in anger: "Build it like that. The architect followed the royal wishes and the church was built as it stands today—with the corners protruding upward like the four legs of a stool."
