SEVEN ON CHARGE OF DRUNKENNESS. A sorry seven faced His Honor Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning and acknowledged the drunkenness charge. At that, however, there was a suggestion of the yule tide for George Christmas was one of those falling from grace. In answer to a query from the court as to whether or not he was guilty, Christmas, who is an Indian, replied "I suppose so. I was drinking some on the train." Patrolman James Covey, who with three others carried the red skin to the lower cove lock up thought there could be but small doubt but that Christmas was intoxicated, and he said: "Now was I really?" asked the Indian, following this with the statement: "The reason I ask is because sometimes my heart bothers me."

Any further cross-examination along this line was stopped by His Honor who asked if anyone had any idea where Christmas got the liquor and added "Nobody is supposed to give liquor to an Indian." The prisoner said that while he was a native of Nova Scotia he had been a resident of Boston for some time and was down this way on a trip. John O'Leary, Dennis Connolly, Patrick Downey, Fred Monteith, and James Campbell were each fined $4 and James Harrington $8.

PAY TRIBUTE TO THE WORTH OF J. N. HARVEY

Address Presented to Him by Methodist Laymen of the City Last Evening

Methodist laymen of the city, at a meeting last evening paid tribute to the worth of J. N. Harvey, soon to leave for Vancouver, in the following address, read by F. R. Murray:

St. John, N. B., Oct. 17th, 1910.

To Mr. J. N. Harvey, Dear Mr. Harvey: This meeting representative of, and speaking for, the laymen of the Methodist Churches of this city, hereby expresses to you their sincere regret on the understanding of their long and intimate association with you.

Your career among us has been watched with admiration by all. We have appreciated your deserved success in business, benefiting the people with goods of value at reasonable prices, and we feel sure that in your new home the same policy will secure increasingly favorable results.

In the interests of the city your efforts to promote its prosperity have been intelligent and untiring, and when you leave us, we part with a good citizen;—indeed, one of the very best.

In the larger interests of the dominion you have looked beyond mere politics and have striven to promote the broad policies which to you appeared of best advantage. While a loyal member of the Methodist Church, and avowedly a Christian, you have, as proven by labors prompt and unceasing, in which you have left us an example worthy of all imitation,— your earnest and outlook have been too wide to be confined by any local interests, but have broadened out to embrace united work with Christians of all shades of opinion, in the promotion of the kingdom of our common Lord and Master over all the parts of the earth.

Dowered thus with views and heart-impulses of more than continental sweep, we cannot wonder that opportunity has awaited you from the sun-kissed shores of the Pacific, across the intervening mountains and prairies of our Canadian dominion, and that you have hearkened to her call. It is right that you should go. We shall miss you,—your personality, your sympathy, your ideas, your work, your example,—but we hope that others will be stimulated to step forward and carry on the work as you have done, and we assure you that, though separated by half a world the hands of our thought shall reach over to grasp yours, and pledge again in the clearest of friendship, our mutual faith in the immortality of truth and righteousness and love.

Yours, on behalf of the Methodist Laymen, JOS. A. LEBLEY, GEO. JENKINS, JAMES MILES, W. G. SMITH, E. T. C. KNOWLES, J. L. THORNE, J. WILLARD SMITH, R. T. HAYES, F. R. MURRAY, J. CLAWSON.

The meeting at which the address was read, was held in the Methodist church. Mr. Harvey expressed his deep appreciation of the sentiment and kindly expressions in the address.

JUDGEMENT IN DEFOREST CASE

Tea Trade Mark at Issue—Chancery and County Court Chambers

His Honor Chief Justice Barker, in chambers this morning, in the case of L. P. D. Tiley, assignee of the H. W. deForest Limited vs Harry W. deForest et al, delivered a written judgment in which he allowed the plaintiff's bill thus compelling the defendant to transfer the Canadian trade mark "Union Blend." Costs are against the defendant. This case was tried at the last term of the court and occupied about a day and half. M. G. Teed, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff, and D. Mullin, K.C., appeared for the defendant. A. A. Wilson, K.C., appeared for J. Harvey General vs the St. John Lumber Co.

In Chancery. Only one common motion occupied the attention of His Honor, Mr. Justice McLeod at the October term of the chancery court, which opened this morning at 11 o'clock. George Gilbert, of Bathurst, in the case of C. Robin Hollis Co., Ltd., vs. Joseph Sewell and others, moved to take the bill pro confesso for want of an appearance. This was granted.

This is an act on a foreclosure of mortgage the sum of $846 being due. The land is in Gloucester county. The case of Dodge vs. Callison stands over until the next term the defendant's pleadings not being ready. M. G. Teed, K.C., appears for the plaintiff, and Weldon & McLeod for the defendant.

The case of McGalligan vs the Willet Fruit Co., also stands over until the next term, also does the case of the Attorney-General vs the St. John Lumber Co. Adjudgment was made sine die.

In county court chambers this morning the case of Hart vs John Soucy, was adjourned until the 22nd inst., on the application of the plaintiff. On a previous day the plaintiff took out an order for the examination of the defendant. L. P. D. Tiley, appears for the plaintiff.

The review case of Sime vs Taylor goes over until Friday at 11 a.m. A. A. Wilson, K.C., appears for the plaintiff, and G. H. V. Belyea, for the defendant.

The case of Manford H. McDonald of this city, vs. Allert Craft, occupied the attention of Judge Forbes this morning. This is an action against the defendant on a promissory note and an account amounting to $170. The amount was owed by the defendant's father, but the plaintiff claims that the defendant is an executor de son tort. The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. L. A. Curvey, K. C., appears for the plaintiff and G. H. V. Belyea, for the defendant.

Julia Ward Howe Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, whose death is just announced in her 92nd year received the honorary degree of doctor of humanities at South College, Northampton, Mass., last Wednesday. When she was conducted to the platform in a wheel chair the audience rose to its feet. After the degree had been conferred there was a burst of applause and then the entire audience, numbering about 3000 joined in singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," her best known composition.

You Don't Have To Pay Any Middleman's Profit at Oak Hall

BECAUSE YOU BUY DIRECTLY OF THE MAKERS—THAT'S WHY YOU SAVE SO MUCH

If you buy one of our $10.00 Suits, you'll save $2.00 to $3.50 of the price you'd have to pay for equally good clothes in any other store, because other stores charge $12.00 to $13.50 for same kind of suits we sell at $10.00.

If you buy one of our $20.00 Suits, you will save $5.00, because you will get a suit that would cost $25.00 anywhere else.

You simply can't help saving a worth-while sum of money whenever you buy clothes from us, no matter what price you pay for them.

That these savings are actual and not in the least overstated will be indisputably evident to the man who will first find out what he'd have to pay anywhere else for the sort of suit he wants, and then come here and compare the other store's price with our price for the same kind of suit.

And aside from the price test, we'd like you to make comparisons from any or all other standpoints.

The fact that for many years Oak Hall Clothing has been worn by more St. John men than any other make, and that today you'll find it in greater evidence than ever, is proof positive of its worth and the strongest possible argument in its favor.

And we have such an enormous variety of all that's new and fashionable that it's the easiest thing in the world to get what you want when you want it. Don't you think it worth while looking into these advantages before you do any buying?
