Alone he lay in a foreign land. While his life blood ebbed away. For Britain's name he fought to shield. All through the bloody battle's fray. Death's chilly pallor stole o'er his cheek. In his eye a deadly gleam. He has done his bit for his country's sake. May his name be forever praised.

He gave his life for his country's sake. It's freedom to maintain. And his name is written in God's great book.

For he sleeps amongst the slain. FAMILY.

JONES—In loving memory of my dear father, Private George H. Jones, who was killed in action Nov. 6, 1917. May the heavenly winds blow softly. O'er that sweet and hallowed spot. Though the sea divides your grave from me.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be depondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer.

The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar combination of roots, herbs and salts. No other medicine acts like it, because no other medicine has the same formula or ingredients. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's, and get it today.

REV. MR. DAGGETT FINDS IT NECESSARY TO EXPLAIN

Q.—These sums were paid after you agreed on the settlement?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Then that would be more than the amount agreed on? The total is $11,700.47.

A.—The $1,500 was not government money.

Q.—What was it?

A.—A personal private matter. I had nothing to do with the government. The commissioner—Was it not credited on a provincial draft?

A.—Yes, he instructed me to credit it on the draft and he retained the balance of the draft. Excuse me, that is wrong. He instructed me to deposit the $1,500 to his credit.

Q.—The evidence is that Smith drew on you as secretary of the department and you paid $1,500 in Fredericton?

A.—I did not pay it.

Q.—H. C. Smith swears he drew on you for $4,000.50 and when it came due $1,500 was paid in Fredericton, leaving $2,500.50 still unpaid. You paid that $1,500?

A.—I did not. I deposited the $1,500 to his credit.

A.—You did not care where it went?

A.—No. It was deposited according to his instructions.

A.—You had a $4,000 draft coming due and you did not bother about it?

A.—The draft was going back. There still was some dispute over the settlement.

Q.—The last draft was dated in September. The requisition for $9,581, which you said you agreed on as the settlement was dated in July. How was it that there still was a dispute?

A.—We had not agreed on some matters and he came back at once for further settlement.

Q.—About that $1,500 you paid A. C. Smith & Co. Was it for goods supplied you?

A.—I will explain that. They were in financial straits at the time and I was helping him to carry things on by notes and drafts and checks. It was so involved that I could not give the details but it is clear in my mind that at that time there was $1,500 due them and I paid it from sources entirely outside the government.

Q.—The commissioner—Who was getting the accommodation, you or Smith?

A.—Mr. Smith.

Q.—Then how did you owe him money?

A.—The accommodation was mutual. Sometimes I was ahead and sometimes he was.

Q.—Were you engaged in business at the time?

A.—Yes, I was; I always am to some extent. That is all I can tell you. If you chase me to the ends of the earth.

Mr. Hughes—But you had settled on the losses of $9,581?

A.—I thought so, but they kept coming back for more money.

Commissioner—About this $1,500, you say it was a personal matter. They say it was a payment from the government. If you are right the government still owes them that much?

A.—I cannot help what they say or what they did. I know it was a personal matter.

Q.—Did Hon. Mr. Murray know of your note in favor of Mr. Jones to accommodate Smith & Co.

A.—Yes. And I must tell him about that check. It was made payable to A. C. Smith & Co. or the Bank of Montreal. I had learned that Smith & Co. had financial difficulties and I feared an assistance might be appointed. I had the check made that way to protect myself as I had advanced them the $5,000.

Q.—When the audit was made up on June 1, 1915, in your presence, the account showed $12,902 due Smith & Co. Had Mr. Smith agreed to any reduction in his charges, prior to arriving at this total?

A.—Not that I recollect.

Q.—On June 23, he drew on you for $9,201 and you accepted.

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did Mr. Murray know of this draft?

A.—I do not know.

Q.—You have said you told him from day to day of the details?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you any doubt but that he knew of this draft, of the $5,000 note and of the use of the government check to retire the note?

A.—I suppose he knew. The deposit slip used at the time the $5,000 note was retired was identified by witness as signed by him.

Counsel received the deposit of money in vault in witness' office by G. B. Jones, and said he had no reason to change his evidence regarding the money being taken to the bank by Mr. Morton.

Q.—Did you write this deposit slip?

A.—The body looks like it. I am not sure of the signature.

Q.—That is the signature of Wm. Tompkins?

A.—Yes. To be candid with you, I believe it was.

Q.—Who is Wm. Tompkins?

A.—I don't know. It was just a fictitious name.

Q.—Why did you sign a fictitious name?

A.—I cannot go into that. There was nothing criminal about it.

Mr. Hughes—I am not so sure of it. Commissioner—You had sworn that you had nothing to do with it.

A.—I think he must have been mistaken.

Q.—You must have known what was in it if you wrote those figures.

A.—I suppose so.

Mr. Hughes—Read the previous evidence regarding the transaction, in which Mr. Daggett had said he had not touched the package and had not filled out the deposit slip.

A.—I must admit I was mistaken, but
