

Standard Extra.

No 30

The Standard.

SAINT ANDREWS, JULY 22, 1868.

Absence from town on business, prevented our issuing more than an extra with advertisements to-day.

We had the pleasure of hearing the celebrated Scottish vocalist, Mr. Kennedy's rendering of the "Songs of Scotland," and have only space to say, that the Institute, St. John, was crowded and that his singing charmed all who heard him. Miss Kennedy's accompaniments on the Piano, were very fine.

Pic Nic.—We are requested to announce that the Catholics of St. George will hold their annual Pic Nic on the 18th of August next. The steamer "Empress" will make an excursion from St. John. The Str. "Queen" from Calais, St. Stephen and St. Andrews, and the Str. "Tyro" from Eastport on the occasion. From the success in the past and efforts making at present, the Pic Nic promises to be the event of the season.
