FRANCIS.—At Crapaud, P. E. I., Sept. 3rd, George Francis, aged 82 years. A native of Suffolk, England, he came to the Island when young. He was a member of church at Tryon. For some time past his health was feeble. A large number attended his funeral. Pastor J. Clark conducted the service, preaching from Psalm 90:10.

ALWARD.—At her home, Lower Ridge, Kings county, N. B., Aug. 13, Mrs. George Alward, aged 84 years. The cause of our sister's removal was a cancer on her face, which for the last five years has been steadily growing until it became an almost intolerable burden. Her trust in Christ remained steady, and supported her to the end.

DODDS.—Little Ruth, the only daughter of Deacon James and Mrs. Dodds, suddenly departed this life on Sunday, the 8th inst. Ruth was a very bright little girl and the parents have the sincere sympathy of the church and community in their sore affliction. This is the fourth member of their family which God in his wisdom has taken to himself in their young and tender years.

ROOD.—At Pictou, Aug. 18th, Capt. J. H. Rood, master of S. S. Acadia, aged 63 years. He was born at Port Hillford, N. S., where he lived until he came to Halifax where now live his wife and five sons. He was a member of the Star Street Free Baptist church, but since it disbanded he has attended the Tabernacle. He was a good citizen, loving husband and kind father. He will be greatly missed.

ANGEVINE.—At his home on six mile road, Aug. 21st, Brother Robert Angevine, aged 69 years. Some weeks previous to his departure he lost his sight entirely, but under this affliction he was patient and submissive, and could say, "One thing I know whereas I was blind, now I see." His spiritual vision was clear. He leaves a sorrowing widow and only child, Mrs. Abraham Benjamin, to mourn the loss of a most devoted husband and father. At rest in Christ.

BROWN.—Annie R., beloved wife of Jacob Brown of Northport, entered into rest, Sept. 2nd, aged 40 years, leaving a husband and seven children to mourn a mother's care. Sister Brown was one of our best members in the Amherst Shore Baptist church. She will be greatly missed by the church and by all who knew her. She has gone. The father and children are lonely, but Jesus, mother's friend, and our friend, too, is here to comfort, and if we love him we shall meet mother again "some sweet day."

METCALF.—At Appin Road, P. E. I., Aug. 20th, Jonathan Metcalf, aged 64 years. His integrity, intelligence, and piety won him widespread esteem.

LOWE.—John Lowe, Esq., of Boston, died very suddenly at home, thus leaving a widow, a sister, and many friends to mourn their loss. His remains were brought home and laid beside those of his friends in the family lot at Mascarine. Mr. Lowe was a barrister in Boston and associated with many business and benevolent enterprises in that city. His associates paid many tributes of respect to his memory. He was a grandson of the late R. V. Mr. Walker, so well and formerly known as a minister of Jesus Christ.

STARR.—At Starr's Point, Kings county, N. S., July 28, John E. Starr, aged 70 years. Mr. Starr was a man of large influence, of public spirit, with an intelligent grasp of affairs and a desire to promote the welfare of his country. In the departments of agriculture and horticulture he was a specialist, whose services were sought by both the Provincial and Dominion Governments, and to whose intelligence and experience the fruit growing industry of Cornwallis is greatly indebted. Two sons and a daughter survive him and will greatly miss his prudent counsel and strong paternal affection.

Justice David MacAdam, of the supreme court of New York, gives the opinion that Emma Goldman and other anarchists who are naturalized can be expelled from the country on the ground that they have sworn falsely in that they obtained certificate of citizenship by fraud in testifying that they were attached to the principles of government and would support its constitutional laws.

J. W. MANNING, Treas. N. B. and P. E. I. St. John, Sept. 10.

An attempted assassination of the President of the United States little remembered now is that of Andrew Jackson on January 30, 1835, by Richard Lawrence as the former was leaving the rotunda of the capital after attending the funeral of a Congressman. Lawrence snapped two pistols at the President, but the percussion caps exploded in each case without igniting the powder. Lawrence was found to be insane.

The progress of surgery in the past 20 years is strikingly brought out by one of the surgeons in attendance on the President when he says that the first thing done in President Garfield's case was to probe for the bullet with an instrument taken from the pocket of the physician and used without sterilization. That such carelessness may have caused the poisoning which finally killed Garfield is deemed probable.
