A BRINSMEAD PIANO

As used by Royalty
This is the best piano built in Great Britain, and is used not only by Royalty but the most musical and best people in England. This firm was established during the reign of King Wm. IV. and is recognised as one of the greatest piano makers in the world. They ship pianos everywhere which are constructed especially for the climate for which they are intended.

One of the special features of this piano is a treatment of the strings which prevents them rusting in this damp climate and they have many other special features. You should call and see our samples of these superb instruments.

FUNERAL OF B. G. VEYSEY AT APOHAQUI

Special to The Standard.
Apoahqui, Aug. 6.—The funeral of the late Burton T. Veysey, the 14 year old lad who was drowned while bathing here on Wednesday last, was held today at one o'clock from the residence of his parents. No death in recent years has cast such a gloom over the entire community. The very large number that attended the funeral and the numerous and beautiful floral offerings were a fitting tribute to the popularity and the high esteem in which the dead boy was held.

Rev. J. McLeod, pastor of the United Baptist Church, Apoahqui, conducted the funeral services assisted by Rev. A. C. Bell. Special music was rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. A. Price, Mrs. D. A. Vail, Mr. J. D. McKenna, and Mr. Plummer. The poll bearers were Herbert Wright, Herbert Johnson, Colby Jones, Roy Thompson, Willie Armstrong, and Sterling Parlee, all comrades of the deceased boy.

The Union Sunday School and Ambition Lodge, I.O.G.T., both of which he was a member, attended the funeral as a mark of respect. All places of business in the village were closed during the service. Jones Bros. mill was also closed down to give their employees the opportunity to pay their last respects. The mourners were the boy's parents, his three sisters, Mrs. Heber Wiles, Miss Nellie and Miss Pearl, Heber Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. H. Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Belding, Mr. and Mrs. C. Belding. Interment took place at the Old River Bank Cemetery.

The floral offerings were wreaths from the family, Court Kings I. O. F., Ambition Lodge, I.O.G.T., Wm. R. Land and O. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Inis, W. H. Wallace, Judge McInyre and J. H. McInyre, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Belding, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eddieson, Bouquets from Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Folkins, Mrs. Davidson and family, Mrs. Jas. Wiles, Colby and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. B. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones.

BLACK HAND MEMBERS TO BE BARRED
Washington, Aug. 6.—A bill providing for very stringent exclusion of immigrants was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative Austin, Tenn. It provides that all Asiatics, except public officials, merchants, students and travellers, shall be prohibited from coming into the United States, Porto Rico, Hawaii or the Philippines. It also excludes adults who cannot read or write, who are not industrious and who have criminal records, as well as all members of the so-called Black Hand or similar organizations.

"THE CALL OF THE WEST."
Harvesters! Harvesters!
Again the West calls to the East for help. The greatest crop Western Canada has ever produced.

The increased acreage under cultivation and the splendid weather conditions that have prevailed throughout the entire season have combined to produce a wheat crop estimated at from 125,000,000 to 150,000,000 bushels, and to successfully harvest this enormous crop will require at least 30,000 farm laborers.

The West can supply but a small fraction of this number, and consequently the Western farmers are obliged to look to the East for assistance in order to save the crops, which of course require to be harvested within a certain period of time.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, realizing the demand for labor in the West, will, as in previous years, run farm laborers' excursions, and it is expected the laborers from the Maritime Provinces will be required to leave the second or third week in August. The exact date will be announced later, and the general arrangements will be along the lines of excursions in previous years.

The work of cutting, threshing and garnering will give months of steady employment to a vast army of laborers, and when the appeal for help comes from the West, it is earnestly hoped that the Maritime Provinces will respond in large numbers as heretofore. Thousands of farmers from the Provinces are now located in the West, in Saskatchewan and Alberta, and they will gladly welcome those from the East who will go to their assistance. The rate is so low that it is almost equal to a free trip.

It is almost equal to a free trip, and the second or third week in August. The exact date will be announced later, and the general arrangements will be along the lines of excursions in previous years.

Workmen are engaged in enlarging the station at Harvey. The freight shed, is to be lengthened out to meet the needs of this growing centre.

Mr. R. B. Clark, student missionary at York Mills and Rockway, spent this week at his home in St. Stephen visiting his friends.

Considerable improvements are being made to the Presbyterian manse property.

THE DIPPERS PREPARE FOR JUDGMENT

Dublin, Aug. 6.—The third annual convention of The Dippers, as the Conneville Revival in progress at Ballinacorney, County Fermanagh, is called, presents strange scenes of religious enthusiasm. It is the belief of the sect that the millennium may be ushered in any moment, and prayer meetings are being held almost continuously. John West, a member of the sect, has placed his large house and grounds at the disposal of the convention. The house accommodates one hundred persons, and the others of the pilgrims utilize the outbuildings and the spacious marquees erected on the lawn for sleeping purposes. Over 2000 pilgrims are attending the convention.

The little colony is the realization of the ideal of simple self-supporting communal life. Each morning finds the camp full of life and activity. All the pilgrims are dressed in coarse, plain clothing. The men are unshaven and wear rubber collars; on the heads of the women are straw hats. All are busily engaged in manual labor or domestic duties, milking, butter-making, cooking, sewing, boot-making, carpentering, etc., every one being assigned a daily task. Then follow intervals of devotional meetings, preaching, hymn singing and baptism. Eury is the keynote of the campaign.

Edward Conney, the leader of the sect, is the son of an Enniskillen magistrate. He has a wonderful flow of language, and his sermons are interspersed with anecdotes. He easily holds his followers during his long discourses. He preaches on the worthiness of all existing churches and the usefulness of the worldly mission. One of the favorite hymns of the sect concludes:

"Neither carry scrip nor raiment, nor shoes nor staves, walk unburdened through the deserts, through the waves."

The baptismal ceremony is performed in an ancient stone well running along the valley. The leader dons his boots and wades in the water to the centre of the stream. Then he gently lowers the convert backward and forward, until the whole body is immersed, after which the convert is assisted to the shore while the pilgrims sing "Who will be next?"

No money collections are taken up. Dinner and tea are given freely to all visitors to the convention, crowds of whom flock daily to see "The Dippers."

Many persons are being converted to the sect by reason of the energetic sincerity of the campaign and are promptly admitted to the brotherhood. The converts already numbered over 2,000. Thus far, the convention has suffered no molestation. The pilgrims claim they travel without money, earning their way by manual labor. The men and women are separated after the devotional meetings.

ODDFELLOWS CONCLUDE SESSION
Shelburne, N. S., Aug. 6.—The Grand Lodge, Manchester Unity Odd Fellows, concluded its business yesterday and adjourned to 6 p. m. The afternoon session was devoted to clearing up odds and ends and installing the newly elected officers for the meeting next year. Invitations were received from the following lodges: Shelburne, and Hubbards. Bridgewater was selected and the Grand Lodge will convene there on the first Wednesday in August, 1910. The last number of the programme of this very successful convention was the banquet tendered by the local lodge, this function being held in the Memorial Hall and was probably the most elaborate affair to take place in Shelburne. The hall was beautifully decorated and redolent with the perfume of potted plants and cut flowers. Music was furnished by an orchestra from the Shelburne band and the beauty and elite of the town were present to do honor to the men whose object it is to visit the sick, comfort the distressed and relieve the wants of the needy.

Covers were laid for 150, and when at 8.30 grace was said by Rev. Mr. Warner every seat was filled. The menu card was in folio form and very pretty, while the bill of fare was such as would tempt the appetite of even a dyspeptic, to say nothing about the strong and jolly old fellows, and the rugged sons and daughters of Shelburne. The guests were waited upon by twenty of the most charming young ladies of the town, and they performed their duties with a thoughtfulness and grace that was a credit to the town. The toasts included eight numbers, Rev. Ward Fisher being toastmaster, and the speeches were excellent. "The King" was duly honored with the national anthem, "God Save the King" was sung, and the national anthem was responded to by Mr. Irwin, M. P., who made a splendid speech. "The Mayor and Town Council of Shelburne" brought brief but interesting speeches from Mayor Bruce and members of the town council, while the next on the list was "The Grand Master and Board of Directors of the Manchester Unity Odd Fellows." Alderman J. S. Edwards responded in an able address on the order, tracing its history to the present time and paying a long tribute to the men who have directed its affairs. Master Keating, who made one of the best speeches of the evening, "Sister Societies" brought forth a thoughtful and impressive address from Stipendiary Magistrate H. S. West. "The Ladies" was looked after by Rev. Mr. Warner and Dr. Lavers, both of whom brought down the house with their merry words. Rev. Mr. Warner's business meeting sent the audience into convulsions of laughter. The whole affair was a great success, and the Odd Fellows are loud in their praise of the hospitable manner in which they have been treated by the people of this town.

The men who exemplify the motto of friendship, love and truth all leave us today for their homes. They carry with them the best wishes of the people of this town, for no finer body of men ever honored Shelburne with their presence.

THE HONORED DEAD.
A handsome monument of steel grey granite has been erected to the memory of the priests who died while at St. Peter's. On one side of the memorial are the following inscriptions:

Rev. Stephen J. Krien, born July 28, 1849, ordained Oct. 31, 1873, died June 25, 1897.
Rev. Peter Trimble, born Jan. 15, 1832, ordained March 19, 1877, died Oct. 9, 1898.
Rev. Michael Corduke, born Feb. 16, 1849, ordained June 7, 1879, died May 9, 1893.

On another face of the monument is the following: Brother John Leo Will, professed May 26, 1884, died Nov. 14, 1887, Age 31 years.
Brother Jeremiah Keefe, professed April 16, 1883, died Oct. 17, 1899, Age 33 years.

Rev. John Nep. Jentsch, ordained July 28, 1844, died March 12, 1890, Age 73 years.
The other two sides of the monument are bare but on its base the initials of the Redemptorist order—C. S. S. R.—are engraved.

Mr. Stewart Bell was a passenger on the Calvin Austin yesterday.
