Without a doubt the largest assortment of High Class Gowns we have ever handled and on account of being a very special purchase, we are able to dispose of them at remarkably low prices.

of them at remarkably low prices. The newest style points include clever neck designs in Chemise, square and V-shapes. Many of them finished with soft fold of he materials used in dress. New sleeve effects are seen including the loose Mandarin sleeve and many tight-er fitting models shaped from elbow to wrist and finished with tiny buttons to match. Loose panels, Plastron fronts, skirt draperies, sashes of various widths and narrow skirts are all decidedly new features, and the trimmings for the greater part include small tucks, wide folds, silk embroidery, beading, fur edges and fringe. Georgette Crepe, Crepe de Chire, Satin or Combinations of two or more of these charming materials are holding first place and the popular colors are Midnight Blue. Black, Navy, Myrtle, Coral, Rose, Resida, Burgundy, Tau-pe, Plum, African Brown, Grey and Sand Shades. ONE UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE GOWN is designed with an

ONE UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE GOWN is designed with an Over Grey Drapery of Georgette, over Pussy Willow Silk to match. It has a long loose panel falling from back of neck to bottom of skirt. Panel and Drap-ery handsomely embroidered in floral pattern with purple silk, brightened with touches of crystal beads. It has long sleeves, tight from elbow to wrist, trim-med with small buttons to match. Very reasonable price, $37.75.

Another model expresses the Japanese influence with its wide oriental-ped girdle, caught up in back and finishing in a long loose sash. It is devel-id in Sand Georgette heavily beaded in jet. The sleeve is made with kimono ulder, finished with wide loose cuff, and the neck is cut in popular Chemise shape. Price only $45.00.
